On your birthday,
I'm thinking about how much light and sparkle
you freely dispense wherever you go,
how your sunny smile lights up any gathering.
Every birthday marks another year
of you radiating positive, happy energy, contagious happiness
that infects all who come in contact with you.
May your next birthday find you the same hi emma

happy birthday and enjoy your self and keep laughing.
this is a poem i have written for u as a fan.

GOD GRANT YOU STRENGTH

God Grant you the strength from day to day,
to bear wat burdens come your way
Grant you throughtout this bright birthday,
more to endure and less to fear.
Help you live that you may be,
from spite and preety petty malic free
Let you not bitterly complain, when cherished hopes of you prove vain or spoil with deeds of hate and rage
Some fair tomorrows spotless page.
Lord, as the day shall come and go in courage let you stronger grow.
Let you be big in lottle things; grant you the joy which friend ship brings.
Keep you from shelfishness and spite;Let you be wise in what is right.
Grant that i may bring no tear to any eye.

when this birthday in time shall end let it be said
I have played the friend,
have lived and loved and labored here,
and madde of it a happy year.

thank you.
take care
we all are with u.

*Instead of counting candles,
Or tallying the years,
Contemplate your blessings,
As your birthday nears.*

*Consider special people
Who love you, and who care,
And others who've enriched your life
Just by being there.*

*Think about the memories
Passing years can never mar,
Experiences great and small
That have made you who you are.*

*Another year is a happy gift,
So cut your cake, and say,
"Instead of counting birthdays,
I count blessings every day!"*

*Have fun, Emma!!!!
Enjoy your special day!!!!*

From Greece with my best wishes, Sophie.

Emma,

HAPPY BDAY EMMA! :)

I can't believe you're nineteen now! I remember you - and Daniel and Rupert, of course- in the first of the Harry Potter movies and you were all so young! So cute :) And now you're 19...

Emma, you're my idol and I admire you a lot! In your interviews and in all the things you do, you show so much maturity and cleverness, you aren't like other teenagers stars who lose theirselves into fame and all that world; you had to carry a lot of pressure for just being a kid, but you did it right. That's so admirable.

Anyways, Emma you are gorgeous and here in Argentina there are a lot of girls who are your fans too. I hope you come here someday :)

Well, happy Birthday Emma, I wish you the best for this day and for the rest of your life. You deserve it :)

Best wishes,
xxx

Hi Em, nineteen years! is unbelievable. There are millions of people around the world that loves you, be happy. Happy Birthday, I hope you enjoy!

I forgot, you must think very well about the university that you wanna go, you have all the time ;)

I leave you a little poem, I hope you like it

You've got the face that I want to see you've got the voice that I want to hear you've got the hands that I want to feel you've got lips that I want to kiss you've rescued me from my lonely world you're now my new reason for living you've captivated me with your shiny soul
My inner was dry but you've sprinkled it with love like an angel who stands beside me
I see your face when I look the stars
I don't know how'd this become so intense if I don't even really know you
I will like to contemplate your being and fell something much more deep Although I feel you near... far away you are...

Besos y Abrazos.-

Facundo, Argentina

Emma,
As probably one of the older crowd, let me preface
this by saying your acting work to date has shown remarkable depth and attention to detail, and is quite worthy of the accolades you've received.

Now the message: in recognition of what I understand is your intention to go to university, I would suggest the following guide your decision. Which is, how do you feel about the location? And do you feel like you belong there? I have several friends who made such a decision sight unseen, or without careful forethought about the context of the university. My own path took me to Northwestern University which is in Evanston, a North Shore suburb adjacent to Chicago, so I had the university appeal and the ability to go into the city for whatever entertainments appealed to me. If you choose to come to a U.S. university, especially one in the Ivy League, check out the available options that suit your interests. Harvard and Columbia (even Penn) are similar to my experience, Yale not as much. Of course, you knew all this, since you wouldn't be considering these schools (or Oxford or Cambridge) if you weren't highly intelligent!

Not so serious: since I personally don't like to be too serious, here's a poem from that renowned humorist, Ogden Nash. I like this one simply for the April reference:

Always Marry an April Girl

Praise the spells and bless the charms,
I found April in my arms.
April golden, April cloudy,
Gracious, cruel, tender, rowdy;
April soft in flowered languor,
April cold with sudden anger,
Ever changing, ever true-
I love April, I love you.

Finally, words to live by, from Rick Power: If you always do what you always did, you'll always get what you always got.

Happy 19th Birthday, Emma. Make it a good one!

Heath Eddy

Exton, PA, USA

I read these lyrics and thought you might like them too.

I am moving through the crowd
Trying to find myself
Feel like a guitar that's never played
Will someone strum away?

[Chorus:]
And I ask myself
Who do I wanna be?
Do I wanna throw away the key?
and invent a whole new me
and I tell myself
No One, No One
Don't wanna be
No One
But me..

You are moving through the crowd
Trying to find yourself
Feelin' like a doll left on a shelf
Will someone take you down?

[Chorus:]
And you ask yourself
Who do I wanna be?
Do I wanna throw away the key?
and invent a whole new me
Gotta tell yourself
No One, No One
Don't wanna be
No One
But me..

Your life plays out on the shadows of the wall
You turn the light on to erase it all
You wonder what it's like to not feel worthless
So open all the blinds and all the curtains

No One, No One
Don't wanna be
No One
But me..

We are moving through the crowd...

Happy Birthday Emma.

Sean, U.S.A

Happy birthday darling;

My name is Kerim Can (read as "Kareem Jhan"). I'm writing u from Turkey. Also I'm a member of ur official site with nick: "SnowTiger".. I hope you are happy. I don't know that how could I tell u my feelings now. No word is enough. My angel; I love you forever. I have been loving u for three years and I've never give up. It's too hard to stay far away from you. So I missed you so much. I've sent u a lot of message everyday. I hope you've read them. All my wishes to live with u forever. I can not live without you. That love is too hard like that. It's impossible to endure. My country (Turkey) is thousands of kilometers far to England. Despite all of them, I'll never forget you.

I'm 17 y.o. I believe all my heart; You'll love me, too. We'll always be happy together.

There's a video I want u to watch:

"<http://www.izlesene.com/video/amator-the-one-i-love/683131>"

If you talk me even only one word, I expect ur reply.

All My LoVe...

Happy Birthday Emma!

(I saw this poem and thought of you)

- Instead of counting candles,
- Or tallying the years,
- Contemplate your blessings,
- As your birthday nears.
- Consider special people
- Who love you, and who care,
- And others who've enriched your life
- Just by being there.
- Think about the memories
- Passing years can never mar,
- Experiences great and small
- That have made you who you are.
- Another year is a happy gift,
- So cut your cake, and say,

"Instead of counting birthdays,
I count blessings every day!"

This text is only to say "Happy Birthday", in this years, you can show a development in each work that you do, in your live or in your public life, but it's very excelent the things that you can do, this is the reason that I write you this, see, you are de persons that I can appreciate in this years, since the year 2000 to present, beacuse you have other vision of the life, for example, in this momento of your life, always can possible, why??, it's by your constant effort.

Ok, happy for 19 years of succesful, I know that all my life I can proud of you, thats for give me this security in you, never in my life I can fell this security for someone... thanks.

I know you that you as public person recive very texts like this, and I hear a day to a friend say me that the public person's are tired of this type of monotony, I thing this, and it's true, so, sorry if you see this text in this category, but I need to express this feeling, thanks...

If you like know something in my life, I'm in this moment in a change stage, my ideas are different almost each 1 second, it's a difficult stage, but I sure that I can "enjoy" this stage.

As you know(if you see the signature), my name is Missael, I study, live, and work in Mexico City, my city is very populated, but I love this city, even I can't live in other state, only in Mexico City, or England, it's my 2 options... (I write this part of the text almost in the end, because I go to in a order of importance of the things that say you, and it's very important for me in this moment say you "Happy Birthday").

OK, THATS ALL, HAPPY BIRTHDAY

PS I never do a graphic for you because I can't use graphics in the computers, it's very hard for me :(

HAPPY BIRTHDAY EMMA!!!!!!

My name is Marie. Where to start? Lets see, it's been 8 years now since I first saw you, in HP1, playing Hermione, and I felt SO identified with your interpretation, Emma, I ADORE you since 2001, I was only 7, and you were the reason for me to start reading the HP books. Now I love them, and it may sound cheesy, but they've been an important part in my life, and I thank you so very much because it was all mostly because of you.

Now, I don't think I'll ever be able to return you this favour properly, but I really mean it when I say I wish you a very Happy Birthday and the best luck. You know, that phrase's been used so much that it lacks its meaning now, so I hope you understand what I am saying, I don't speak English, but I've done my best for you to understand it.

Dear Emma I really wish you to have a great 19th birthday and to spend it and all your life surrounded by the people you love, and be happy, very happy. I'm glad I know some English, but I wish it was my first language, cause there are a lot of things I'd like to say but can't. I know that if I'm lucky enough you'll read this and understand at least the global idea. I've send you a photo for the special date. Hope you like it.

The best luck and much love from

Marie (Argentina)

Happy 19th Birthday Emma!!!

It's amazing how far you have come in 10 years since you first auditioned for the role of Hermione Granger at the age of nine. You are already filming Deathly Hallows, which will be the last time you portray Hermione, you have expanded your acting career in other roles and have further displayed your great acting talents, you have become a familiar face in the world of fashion, you choices for a university are among the best out there which you have earned with your straight A's, and you have grown from a young girl into the most beautiful woman in the world(in my eyes).

But what truly impresses me is that you have remained the sweet, down-to-earth girl we have supported all these years, and give so much not only to your fans, but to others as well with your involvement in charities.

I hope you have a great, safe birthday celebration with your family and friends.

Love,

Happy Birthday from Indonesia: emerald of the equator Happy 19th Birthday!

I'm sure you're feeling "wow, I've experienced more this past year than the first 18 years of my life". As people gets older, their activities, connections, responsibilities are increased in folds (as if you haven't had enough ;-)). Suddenly you're finding it harder to find time to relax; you have your agenda packed for the whole week...and the week after; and you're lost in your work. It's the baggage that comes with being an adult. On the other hand, we learn more about ourselves, about our surroundings, about people, about the world, and we learn how satisfying it all to be a part that interacts with all of them, a part that contributes, someone that make people around them to smile. Of course being 'lost' in anything is never a good thing, you should set aside time to break off the routine; learn new stuff while refreshing your body and mind.

On that note, I want to invite to you come to Indonesia. It's a beautiful country, naturally and culturally. We're the largest archipelago in the world, with many subcultures spanning from asia into the pacifics. Yeah Jakarta (our capital) can be a mess, but I want to show you the other parts of Indonesia; the parts that for centuries have been the roots of our people, our culture, our differences, our harmony; the parts that have lured westerners for centuries; these things that are lost to outside world, even to most Jakartans and Indonesia's young generations. We're having a national identity crisis where it seems like foreigners appreciate motherland (or "Ibu Pertiwi") more than its own children. Did you know? The city of Bandung was once called "Paris van Java" by Europeans for its beautiful landscape, nice weather, and great food. While you might now know much about Indonesia, most likely you've heard of Bali: the island of the gods. Bali is just the tip of the iceberg of what real Indonesia is like. I'm attaching a picture of me and my friends on a pier in Ujung Kulon (Western Java) just last week (29 March 2009). We had an unbelievable time, the smoothest sand in the world, the warmest sun, corral fishes, and you can even pat a wild deer in a nearby forest.

I implore you to come to Indonesia, learn about new places, new people, and the foods. Believe me when I say no country in this world is richer and more diverse in nature and culture than Indonesia. This year the World Ocean Conference was held in Manado, Indonesia. It's a proof that our seas are world class. I hope this short letter can get you interested in Indonesia, if you do come here please let me know. I'll be more than happy to be your guide.

BTW I started to play rugby 2 months ago, my decision to split my pastime of basketball for rugby was partly influenced by you (not a large part but decisive nevertheless). I play number 8 for the Jakarta Bantengs and already in the first squad. It's not a pro team since rugby isn't very popular yet and we don't have a pro league. But we do play internationally in the Southeast Asia region playing more established teams from other countries. Bantengs itself has 4 national rugby union players in its ranks; I'm aspiring to be the 5th. I've always love sports, not just the physical aspect of it but also the history, the spirit, the struggle, the dedication, the camaraderie, everything (except training alone which I'm lacking in discipline). Just you wait until I join the national team, I'll be sure to let you know about it.

Cheers,
Reno W.

If you're wondering I'm the third guy from the left. Standing behind. See the shadows of the boats. Tempting no?

Congratulations Emma! Isn't it nice being 19? Suddenly you feel so much more grown up when you can say "I'm nineteen!" I really hope your birthday is going to be great. You deserve the very best Emma! You're working so hard all the time, so I really hope you'll get some time off on your own day!

Well.. keep up the good spirit!

Happy Birthday :)

The most amazing young lady I have ever heard of. I haven't met you... yet, but when I do it will be the experience of a lifetime. And OMG You are turning 19; the age of a young lady. I wish you the best. I live in the U.S.A. so the chances of me meeting you are pretty low, but if you go to university here that would be wonderful. I really wish you the best birthday ever! I really love your acting. I've seen all the movies you've been in. They are all amazing; just like you!!

Best wishes,
Emery Stewart x o

Happy Birthday, Emma! You have attracted me since I saw your performance in the movies of the Harry Potter series. You have changed a lot, not only the appearance but you have been more and more charming. Your attitude towards study is what I want since you are a very hard working student and performing artist. I always try to work hard but I failed to do so. You are my goal and I am glad to have you as my idol. I hope you enjoy every moment and keep on filming. I love you, Emma.

Emma i hope you like this poem
"Happy Birthday" means much more Than have a happy day.
Within these words lie lots of things
I never get to say.
It means I love you first of all,
Then thanks for all you do.
It means you mean a lot to me,
And that I'm proud of you.

But most of all, I guess it means That I am thinking of
Your happiness on this, your day,
With pleasure and with love.

Do u like it ? Happy Birthday :)

Dear Emma We Will Always Love,

Happy birthday Emma! You have finished your another year which is full of happiness and sadness. You couldn't read but we sent another letter for your 18. Birthday, too and we are keeping your birthday again and you are 19 now. You are always brilliant, beautiful sweet and mature. It's obvious that you will have a wonderful life which has full of successes. We know that you do not know anyone of us but every single day we know you, understand you and love you. You have been our beautiful, smart and sweet Emma since Harry Potter and the Philosopher's Stone.

You are so far from us but our feelings are increasing everyday. Actually our feelings aren't short enough to write in this letter. Your smilings are very cute for us but they are so far from us like you. But we are not complaining for that. That is enough for us you are there. By the way we would like to see you and talk with you. If you come to Istanbul Premiere of the Half-Blood Prince, we will be the happiest people in the world. You are so important for us who become happy just keeping your birthday. You became our cause of happiness.

We know that you know our hearty feelings and you love us. We hope you will have a healthy, happy and successful year and happy birthday again. We send you an armful love as Emmafan Family. Don't forget we really love you.

We believe that you will have a very successful life. We wrote this letter for all of your fans in Turkey

Emma, not only are you gorgeous but your clever too.... That does not happen very often, that's why I am sure we will be together soon. Trust me....

William, England

Happy birthday you look the same,
A few wrinkles, nothing to shame.
We all lose our external beauty,
Growing internally is our duty.

Happy birthday ^^ look the same,
Time is flying by, who should we blame?
Aging can't be all that bad,
More experiences, you get to add.

Happy birthday you look the same,
From a distance, I see your flame.
As I look and see your eyes,
Sharp as ever; calm and wise.

Jennifer Robinson, California

Sweet Emma,

How is time blowing by so fast? I am 17 years old, and I still feel as if I should be 12. I am so thankful that you are a blessing to so many because there are few who truly have found what you have: yourself. You are free in who you are, even though sometimes I know you feel caged in, being constantly surrounded and bombarded by people who want to be all over you and your personal life. You are a gorgeous girl, a girl who desires more than anything to be a normal, silly 19 year old. I hope in this upcoming year you find that place where you can be that normal girl because I also long for that as well. Someone has probably told you this because I know you receive an outrageous amount of letters, but you, Emma, glow. You have this glow about you that comes off at first as someone who holds a rare beauty, but then your confidence and sincerity reveal a deeper level of yourself, showing people that you do have a heart- and a deep one. I do not know you, but from what I do know about you, I know this: that you will grow into a woman of unique graciousness and generosity. In my eyes, you are a beautifully gifted, radiant girl of 19 who cannot help but smile and be silly. You are a rare jewel in a jumble of rocks. Know that you, Emma, are a blessing.

Happy 19th dear Emma.

Salaam, Rachel

Liebe Emma, ich heiße Mara Alexandra, komme aus Detschland und bin 12 Jahre alt. Ich wünsche dir alles Gute zu deinem 19. Geburtstag und hoffe dass deine Wünsche alle in Erfüllung gehen und ich wünsche dir auch viel Gesundheit. Ich finde es toll dass mein Wunsch in Erfüllung geht und ich endlich mal so ein bisschen mit dir reden kann, das habe ich mir schon immer gewünscht. Du bist für mich meine Lieblingsschauspielerin und ein tolles Vorbild. Wenn wir uns vielleicht irgendwann mal sehen könnten, würde ich mich sehr freuen, wenn wir Freundschaft schließen können, natürlich wenn du nichts dagegen hast und mich vielleicht auch ein bisschen magst. Aber ich glaube das ist nur ein wunderschöner Traum und es währe mein allergrößter Wunsch. Ich wünsche dir noch viel Erfolg mit den Harry Potter Filmen und mit deinen anderen Erfolgen, die du bestimmt noch haben wirst. Du kannst ja mal deinen Freunden Daniel und Rupert einen schönen Gruß von mir ausrichten. Ich könnte noch lange weiterschreiben, aber dann wird der Brief zu lang. Also ich wünsch dir noch viel Glück und einen wunderschönen Geburtstag und hoffe dass wir irgendwann vielleicht noch mal in Verbindung kommen können.

Dann sag ich mal tschüssi.

Deine Mara Alexandra, Deutschland

(Dear Emma, my name is Mara Alexandra, Detschland come from and I'm 12 years old. I wish you all the best to your 19th Birthday and hope all your wishes come true and I wish you much health. I think it's great that my wish is fulfilled, and I endlich times as a little talk with you, which I've always wanted. You're for me, my favorite actress and a great role model. If we maybe someday could see, I would be very happy if we can close friendship, of course, if you have nothing against me, and maybe a little bit like. But I think this is just a beautiful dream and it would be my utmost desire. I wish you much success with the Harry Potter films, and with your other successes that you'll have even more determined. You can indeed times your friends Daniel and Rupert a nice greeting from me orient. I could still continue to write long, but then the letter too long. So I wish you much happiness and a wonderful birthday and hope that someday we might again be able to connect. Then I'll say bye.)

Happy Birthday, Emma! Thank you, for you just being you.
