HAPPY BIRTHDAY EMMA!!

I hope you have a great day, with many gifts and that you celebrate with your family and friends.

You are one of the best actresses there at the moment and hope that after Harry Potter films continue to do many many more! =)

Also I have to admit I'm a big fan of the entire series of Harry Potter (both books and movies) and I have to tell you I love how you act, the truth is that now when I read a Harry Potter book I see you, Daniel, Rupert and all others as "acting" in my head .. is so funny =) besides, I also turn 20 this year (the 19th of June) so somehow I've grown with you, I grew up with my favorite characters, it's great =)

I'm anxious to see the last 2 movies! The last book of Harry Potter is my favorite and I have really wanted to see the great work you are doing, see how the words, places, characters, different situations come to life, become real =) I'll try to go any of the premieres in London and finally to see everyone in person!

Happy birthday again, hope you read my message, I have not been very original in my words, I'm sure that lot of people told you many times .. but has come from the depths of my heart.

Best wishes,
Esther, Spain

Happy 20th Birthday GIRL!! You rock! Have a great day, because you deserve it!

Cristina, USA

First of all happy birthday Emma! I'm sure your getting that a lot. I hope you have a really great 20th. I've been a fan since the first Harry Potter movie. I always thought you made the movies more interesting. I remember being pretty little and wanting to be just like you and now I've grown to be purely inspired by your talent to just be myself. You've inspired me to do pretty much everything I've been starting to do since I was thirteen. Going to auditions putting myself out there and working for what I want. I just wanted you to know that if I ever make movies wether being behind the camera or in front of it you are probably the root reason I discovered my passion for it at all. I've always wanted to say a proper thank you for working as hard as you do, so thank you. Again, have a great 20th and all of us fans think your amazing.

Rachel, United States

Turning 20 is a big feat, and I too will be in the same boat in August. Hope your university career is going well, mine sure is, and good luck with your future endeavors. Have a Happy Birthday and can't wait to see you on the big

Hey Emma,

Happy very special 20th birthday!

I've always wanted to write you a long letter and I wrote a few, but I never sent them. I'm sorry. Maybe I should've done it earlier. Anyway, this won't be the only letter im gonna write you.

First i want to say "Happy birthday!" to you! I wish you happiness, love, luck in life, health and once again - love. :)

Everyone can see the difference between the cute girl you was when you started filming the first Harry Potter and the beautiful young woman that you are now. Although I was very young when I saw Harry Potter and the Philosophers Stone in the theaters, I remember I asked my mom of the name of the actress that plays Hermione. My mom told me: "It's Emma Watson". After that i remembered that name. I was about four or five years old then maybe. But since then till now you've been an inspiration and a perfect rolemodel to me through all these years. I think I should've told you that in a letter like ages ago!

Through the years Ive also found many thing we like and have in common. Like you are Aries, I am Aries. My birthday is on April 11th and yours is on April 15th (just one day before my grandma, lol). I'm turning 14 this year actually. Anyway, that doesn't matter that much.

The thing is although it's your 20th birthday, for your fans and me, you will always remain the same Emma, no matter what. Please stay exactly that beautiful, intelligent, funny and full of energy!!

Im stopping here, so I won't bore you with my wishes.

Have an amazing birthday!

With much love,

Rali, Bulgaria xoxoxoxo

Happy Birthday, Emma! Wow.. 20 years! You're the one actress I've always looked up to. I grew up seeing your movies and trying to be just like you. (When I was little!). I really, really wish I get the chance to see you in real life once! Anyways.

Best wishes from Sara, Norway

HAPPY BIRTHDAY!

Emma! I want to talk about how important you are to me! I want to say I love you lot even though we are far, far away .. I want to tell you give an excellent example for all that you propose, you do reach each of your goals, and it is really admirable. I wish you HAPPY BIRTHDAY! And I hope a great time with your friends and your family! And me, you know that I will be thinking and wishing you a Happy day. It's great to have you as an example.

For that and much more, THANKS FOR ALL THE GOOD EXAMPLE AND HAPPY BIRTHDAY !!!!!!!

With plenty of love and admiration,

Dear Emma, Happy 20th Birthday !

It only happens once each year,
Book the train and pack your gear.
Your destination seems unknown,
As you sit there, all alone.

Something internal, in a rush,
Just like the toilet, we usually flush.
Constantly staring at the clock,
Are you waiting for your flock?

Savour the moment, don't wait for the end,
Nobody knows, if you may extend.
Journey divided into equal parts,
Today is another, we'll add to the charts.

Your train has left, from the town of birth,
Hopefully located, on planet earth.
The next stop, might seem the same,
It shall reveal, what you became.

So I love you and Happy Birthday again and hope you enjoy every second ! :)

Love from Becca, Australiaaaa :) xox

Becca :

All the best Emma
 today it become 20 years,
 the sky blue and as clear as daylight,
 if I was there today also with pleasure for you,
 kidnap würd I you even,
 in the next restaurant or in a bar,
 würd you completely spoil,
 since since I you know herscht suchtgefahr,
 because everything in you is miraculous,
 from head to foot and skin and hair,
 is itself here yours perceptibly warms,
 if this sounds also rather odd, everything
 if each of these words remains true,
 it is help yourselves since me saw you,
 and if the longing remains insatiable,
 if I was close to you at every moment so with pleasure,
 however, we are friends and no pair,
 therefore, also is more than clearly,
 up to now it did not happen even more,
 as rare see and a lot blabla,
 nevertheless, therefore, compliments are not rare,
 since you are nicer than nights starry,
 and in the end once again, all the best Emma!

Emma,

I can't believe that you are turning 20! I am such a huge fan of yours and I love everything that you do. It's unbelievable that the first Harry Potter movie came out nine years ago. Time sure goes by fast! I am really excited to see you in the last two films. At the same time I am sad because this whole phenomenon will be over. I hope that you continue with acting because you truly are an amazing actress. Have a happy birthday and make this year a great one! Good luck with university and everything you do in the future. I'm sure you will be successful at everything you do as you are an extremely talented girl!

xoxo, Angela, Canada

To be or not to be, that is the question

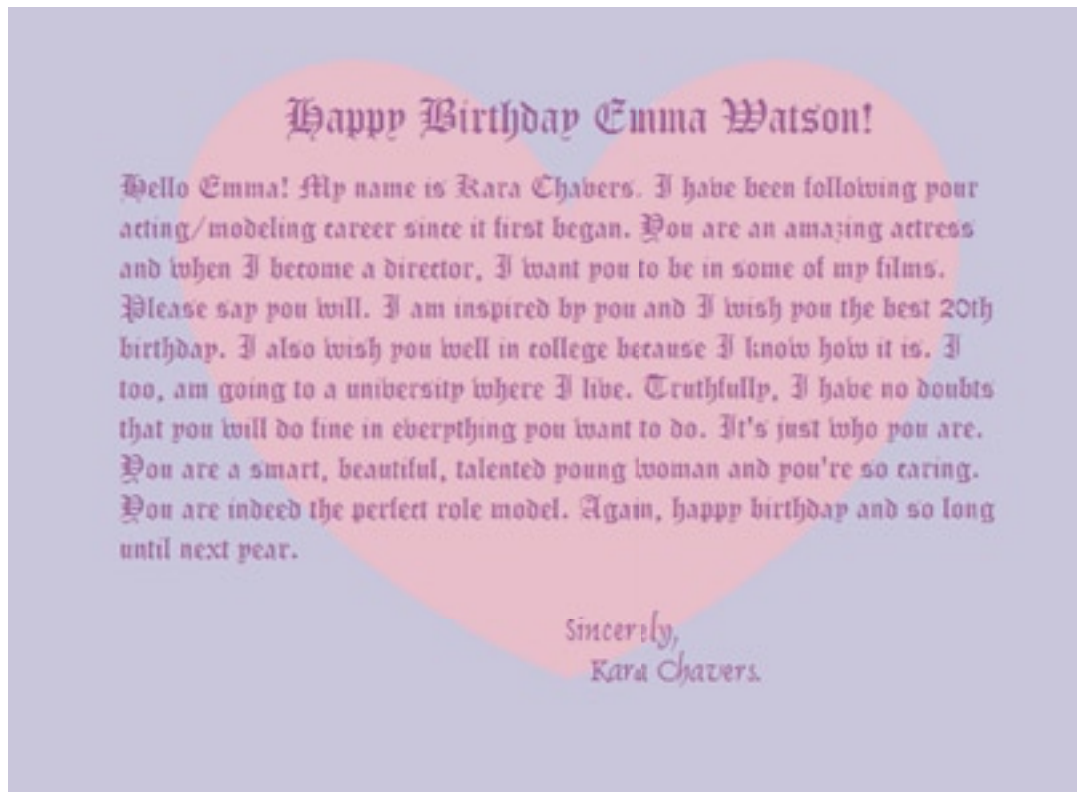

Now you're twenty and we have a lesson.
You may be silly, but there is no reason.
You may be nutty, but that is an option.
You may be beauty but you have to have caution.
You have to be funny, trusty and happy.
And I know, young lady, you're that kind of person.
I am no groupie, I just write with passion.
This card is to thee, to make your birthday sweeten.

Happy Birthday dear Em
I would like to give you gem
20 million roses too
They are beauty, just like you
I would like to give you world
But afraid what God it hold
Maybe just another planet
You would say "Oh gosh", I "dammit"
We would live there together
There always goodest weather
Birds are singing beauty songs
Whole day this singing longs
There are no war, no death, no hurts
Only goodest hearted words
Love as beauty as in movies
You can take away your groovies
There people knowing God
И дела идут на лад
Sorry, I just couldn't take the rythm
Maybe I'll rewrite next time...
If I'll fall to Earth from Heaven
I don't know what can be given
Maybe just this silly poem
And few words: "Just take it, go Em!!!"
You have everything you need...
Are you have it is indead?
Maybe you dream till the night
Hope your dream it isn't flight
Even if it's so we'll take it
Soul ведь can fly, God make it ;)
I have seen you very tired
Or my eyes just have been lied?
Maybe someone's hurt you Em?
Trust me, I would kill all them!!! :)
Maybe this effect of fame...
Maybe this is toughest game...
I would wish what in next time
Someone good to you have come
Someone who can make you happy

Light up smile... Make you happy...
Sorry for last lines, I'm sad
Yep, my English very bad
Anyway, what wishing you?
God please make her dreams comes true
God please make her always happy
Happy, happy, happy, happy
Wish you find truelest love
Wish you often, more laugh
Wish you stop of all this rumors
Wish to take away all fumes
Wish to get good roles to play
Wish to always feel OK
Wish you this and wish you that
Wish more time for internet
Wish you honest, loyal mates
Good relationships with Yates
Wish to always, always smile
Wish to give me your e-mail
Ups... "It's not your birthday, hay!!!"
I am hearing what you say
Well, it's time for me to quit
Or I'll get from you big hit
I'm your tallest craziest fan
I'm not woman, I am man!!! :)
Huges and kisses, lots of love
Longer write for me too tough.

Your smile like sunshine
Unfortunately not mine
Your face like peace of gold
It's strange, but noone told
You was a little girl
When in the fame you fall
It was your purpose
You'd get to it too close

Now you have worldwide fans
Which paid for you few pence
Which wanna give you rose
Which wanna touch your nose
Which have the same purpose
To get to you too close
You've been in magazine
When you was just fifteen
Since then you're fashion baby
But it's just like your hobby
Or not? Like what it stand
If you have got your own brand?
Ok, enough with fame
I'll tell you who I am
I'm biggest fan of yours
You know whole my purpose
I wanna be with you
Bla-bla-bla-bla... Mew-mew :)
Ok, enough with me
I wanna drink some tea.
Of course not just alone
I wanna get phone call
And heard from you: "you tall"
6 years longs my obsession
I even slept my session (for true, lol :))
I know I'm out of order
You'll get whole my uncoder
Ok, enough with verce
I hear.... Coming.... Nurse.

I am usual crazy boy
И хочу я быть с тобой
You are beauty, you are sweat.
Just look where love had lead
I have last my mind for you
I'm not kidding that's for true

I don't care about roles you plays
I don't care about fashion ways
I see your soul through your eyes
And I pray for them don't cries
Maybe someday we will meet
And will walk throughout the street
I will listen, you will told
And my hand your hand will hold
Everything will last at night
I'm your king and I'm your knight
Till that moment didn't came
I will try to catch that fame
I will try to get the rich
Not for me, for you, for speech.

To My Dearest Lovely EMMA,
HAPPY BIRTHDAY!!!!

I can't actually believe it! You're twenty. It's extremely amazing. Time flies, when you first had your audition for your character Hermione Granger in the Harry Potter series, you were just nine years old or just turned ten. Now, you grow up to become a beautiful, elegant, sweet young lady.

A decade has passed, the legend of Harry Potter film is nearly finished but I won't believe it till the day it's actually to be over. I reckon the miracle will be continued, everyone will still love the books and films, I will definitely be one of them. You've changed your life completely and you've fulfilled your dream, being an actress, a princess and participating in a fairy tale - Princess Pea. The day of twenty, it's not bad to do so. I hope your dreams will come true, maybe you have other thoughts in the future.

I really admire you as my hero not only today but also in the past, present or even future. I can't image how much you have scarified when filming the movie and how you can juggle the balance between studying and filming. Absolutely, I have got no idea about it. You have done a great job not great but excellent job in your GCSE and your A-levels, you got all A* in your exams. You are talented in academy, modeling or even film career. Just make best use of your talents, OK??

I LOVE YOU!!!

What to wish for twenty years?
The life only has begun,
And it is a lot of ahead
Love, opening, happiness ...

So we will wish this day,
That without doubts silly
You went on a life only forward
Though the way also will be difficult!
Though there will be a set of barriers,
But you forget about it:
For certain you will find in a life
The love, smiles, is a lot of light!
Also there will be everything as you will wish
In the good luck only trust
And without a doubt will swing open
To you any in a life a door!
Without regrets and insults
Try to live a life
And everyone will be glad with you
To communicate and be on friendly terms!
Only twenty years to you,
All in a life ahead,
Also we congratulate you
Today with all the heart!

P.S. With love

"Happy Birthday" means much more
Than have a happy day.
Within these words lie lots of things
I never get to say.

It means I love you first of all,
Then thanks for all you do.
It means you mean a lot to me,
And that I'm proud of you.

But most of all, I guess it means
That I am thinking of
Your happiness on this, your day,
With pleasure and with love.

Dear Emma,

I wanted to sing you a happy birthday song and have it broadcasted on international tv. But since Marilyn Monroe already did this for J. F.
Kennedy, I have to do it on this way:

Many happy returns!

I hope I am able to do it next year on a more original way, but I'll see about that later.

Either way, keep inspiring me and the rest of the world. And have a magnificent day!

A birthday card for Emma Watson. The background is white with black floral vine illustrations in the corners. In the center, there is a faded image of Emma Watson in a black lace dress with her hands on her hips, and a larger, semi-transparent close-up of her face behind it. The name 'EMMA WATSON' is written in a black serif font across the middle.

EMMA WATSON

Happy Birthday Emma,
From Aaron Jayson

Happy twentieth birthday, Emma!

I think that you are a wonderful actress. Hermione Granger has always been my favorite Harry Potter character, and when I before I had seen the movies, I was reluctant to because I was afraid they would ruin the image in my head of Hermione. Was I wrong! The moment I saw you, I knew they couldn't have picked a better actress to portray Hermione. You have done a great job showing all aspects of Hermione, such as her strong side as well as her more vulnerable side. I can't wait to see you in Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows!

Also, I just want to say that I respect and admire your choice to attend university.

Happy Birthday!

Dear Emma,

Thank you for following your intuition that day, 10 years ago, when you decided to audition for the Harry Potter movie! If you hadn't done that we wouldn't have had the pleasure to find out about such an extraordinary person.

From that day on, without intention, you became a role model for people all around the globe.

At the fragile age of merely 10 years old, you bravely faced the world! When other children still played with toys, you had already starred in a very successful movie, that later on became a phenomenon, while still keeping up with all your studies, in an exemplary manner.

It's been 10 years since you slipped into our hearts. Thank you for being the Emma we know and love, even after all these years!

Thank you for giving us the opportunity to be aware of your existence and witness your evolution step by step and thank you for being brave enough to share your whole growing up process with us.

You have influenced so many lives (especially mine :)) that you probably don't know or can't even imagine (they do say celebrities are never aware of their own success...)

But you should really be proud of yourself! You've had so many accomplishments already and you're just turning 20! You have helped so many people, just by being yourself. You have offered the world the option to choose you as an idol - and you truly are more than an extraordinary example to follow.

You are one of the greatest persons I've ever heard of and you have influenced my life a lot. You have been so natural and honest with us since the very beginning and you've kept these qualities intact all this time. We are all very grateful for that! :)

You kept your feet on the ground even when you were on top of the world. The massive success you had didn't change your personality, you've handled it wonderfully!

You weren't afraid to be yourself, to show you're human and that sometimes even you can make mistakes; we all have our good and bad days. And you're courageous enough to show yourself just the way you are to the world.

You wish to carry on a normal lifestyle, despite having millions of dollars in your account and a very successful career. You never abused your power and you have never become arrogant or self-centered and that shows great morals.

You have a strong personality, you had never let yourself get influenced in a bad way, despite having spent your childhood in the spotlight, under a constant pressure the media likes to put on every celebrity.

You are incredibly kind and sweet to everyone (maybe even too kind sometimes...) and very talented! Seriously, I could not have imagined a more suitable person to give life to Hermione Granger like you did! You're so hard-working and serious about your responsibilities and also very intelligent and witty ;)

The media was in desperate need of amazing persons like you! And they probably don't even realize how lucky they are to have you working in their branch.

It's probably useless to say anything more about your graceful look, as you most likely get told these kind of compliments all the time :D

But I'll just say one thing - you truly are one of the most graceful and beautiful human beings I have ever seen! You have a natural beauty that needs no artificial tricks. You simply shine by yourself - and you should be grateful for that!

You have really been a special person in my life, you have influenced me in ways you couldn't even imagine... There aren't enough words to describe how much I admire and respect you, but I just have to put an end to this letter :)

You have grown beautifully, Emma, and kept great morals. I deeply admire you for that. May you shine on us for 100 more years from now on! (at least...) ^^

You are simply an amazing person. Be happy and proud of yourself! And please always follow your intuition and heart! They are the best guides in the world! Trust yourself, your inner guidance, that will always help you in life!

Happy birthday! ^^ May all your heart's desires come true! You deserve it!

All the love,

Seranya :)

Happy Birthday my dear emma

Hey Emma,

a very happy 20th birthday to you from us twins from Germany :) We hope you can spend a pleasurable day and really enjoy being a "tween".

Lots of Love,

Emma and Emily, Germany

Happy 20th Birthday Emma. I can't believe how much time has passed. It was ten years ago that you first started filming the Harry Potter series, and this year you will be finished filming the series. And you've come a long way since then, with two non-Harry Potter films (and likely more to come), two campaigns for Burberry, and your own line with People Tree. But despite all of this you remained down-to-earth and friendly. Once again, I thank you for all you have given us fans and to numerous others. You are an amazing woman, Emma, and you can do anything you put your mind to. Don't let anyone tell you otherwise.

So good luck at Brown University, and I hope you have a happy birthday with your friends and family. Even if it's a school day I hope you enjoy it.

Love, Kevin, USA

Hey Emma!

Happy 20th! I hope you have a great one! Gosh I can't believe time has passed so fast I've been a fan of yours for six years now when you were 14 and I was 12. I just wanted to say have a great birthday and good luck with everything, no matter what you decide to do in the future you have my support, and oh yeah I think you're a great idol and role model and I really look up to you

Happy birthday!!!!

xxx ooo... lots of love from Sweden

PS: you should totally visit Sweden some time ;)

cheers! <3

Happy Birthday!!! Just wanted to wish you a great day, lots of gifts, happiness for this year and enjoy it!

Hey there, dear Watson!

As you may already know, you have fans all over the world... well, here you are, gathered together, the most bizarre, eccentric, passionate and... latin birthday wishes you can possibly get: those of your coolest fans, the Italian ones. The EWI People!

EWI is nothing but an acronym for Emma Watson Italia, Italian biggest website about you. Boys and girls from all over the Bel Paese have signed up and visit it just to keep up to date with your fast paced life! EWI was born 7 years ago, just after you punched Malfoy. With all the news, photos, stories, video-interviews subtitled in Italian, translated E.M.S., it's just the best and right place for those who can't help see you smiling every day.

If you have reached this point, you might be wondering what all of this has to do with our birthday wishes... well, actually, they are just a pretext for bothering you a little bit, just like real fans are supposed to do.

Do we want to get trivial? Ok, let's do it. But only to say that we find you are extremely clever on set, Hermione or not. Oh yes, of course... you're outrageously beautiful as well. Sexy, and charming, even with your grey Oxford tracksuit on. Probably most of your short-term memory is overloaded with this kind of praises and we do not want to speed up your mental ageing being that obvious. =)

It all started way back in 2001, when the entire world saw you for the first time, looking for a lost toad in that compartment on the Hogwarts Express. Bushy hair and an early age didn't stop many of us making room in their hearts for you: someone felt mixed-up because of your very first performance, for someone else it took a couple more films, others really noticed you not long ago.

Matter of fact, everyone of us has a inner drawer with your name carved on it. It has been written inside of us by you, just like Professor Umbridge special pen would have done. Wow, apart from the pain, this analogy actually gets across!

Going by what each and everyone of us thinks and writes on EWI, one thing stands out clear: we all love your total commitment, energy and enthusiasm in pursuing your project and your experiences. It may sound strange or unlikely to you, but a lot of us find strength in you to overcome daily difficulties, you are a source of inspiration for the bad times, small or big they might be. Watching you as you give your best help us on the right track to do the same, because even though you're a public person we have been following you close and long enough to know and see you as "one of us": a girl who studies, works, hangs out with her friends. There is more than haute couture gowns and stilettos. Probably it was you that led us to many of the little victories we have achieved, with all the strength of will you inspire people to have.

We could admire that not just in the film you starred, but also in your colonial shoulder-to-shoulder contribution to People Tree (by the way, some of us liked pretty everything and actually bought something for the upcoming summer), in the freshy Burberry campaign, but also simply in you Granger-like commitment to your studies, in choosing the prestigious Brown University and, finally, in your latest (and almost confidential, unfortunately) stage play, "Three Sisters".

Your sweetness surprises us everytime, let alone your kindness and attitude to others, particularly the fans. It can't be taken for granted, but you make it obvious. That's amazing.

When we read your interviews or listen what you say in a clip, there is always something about you that touches our emotions: a smile, a gaze, something you said. You are just captivating.

Ok, now this may be a little too apple-polishing than we thought it would be, but we can't help telling you that your voice and your accent are marvellous.

One last thing, something that is dear to our hearts: you gave us the chance to know each other. It's odd: even though you didn't join anyone of them (but no one believes that and keeps asking!), you work better as a social network than Facebook, Twitter and MySpace put together...

We are sure that saying all of this makes you happier than just keep praising your beauty and cleverness. At least, we hope so!

Ok, there is nothing left to do but wishing you an happy 20th birthday.

Nothing peculiar about this greetings, but we warned you: it was just an excuse for sending you this message. =)

Kisses,

Your italian fans.

If I Were My Lady

If I were a dictionary my lady
I would have putted your name with all the words
If I knew all the languages off the world
I would have putted your name in the first of them
I would have companied you with the word beautiful
With the word love
With word adore and emotion
With art, literature and perfection

If I were a painter my lady
I would have putted your face instead of Mona Lisa
I would have putted it in all the museums of the world
I would have putted it in icons

If I were a singer or a composer or a songwriter
I would have made you the best melody that ever made
I would have make them sing you like evening prayers

If I were an emperor on the whole world
I would have given up my throne
And crown you my Venus
And changed the name of earth
To your name my lady

Dearest Emma,

I know a whole lot of people usually write to you, but you gotta' know that I'm a different kind of person. I'm not writing you this letter about Emma Watson, the talented actress nor am I writing regarding Hermione, the sweet magician...

I write this letter today directing to Emma, one of the whole world's greatest women there is!! Not only for your way of being, how you manage to think and actually, do things. You must be thinking: "This guy doesn't even know me...", but I'm pretty sure you must be so humble and nice to be with, because you're smart, positive and most important of all, always smiley! (:

Besides, you share your passion for art, music and Sports! Now, for me, personally, you are an example to follow for life and I have accomplished a lot of things, thanks to you.

Concluding this message, I wanted to thank you for all of these hopes and feelings you give me without even noticing it. Sincerely wishing for us to meet someday, I know we'll do...

The strongest Love from Mendoza, Happy 20th Anniversary! Keep on rocking the world, Emma!

Dear Emma

This is Gayatri from India. First of all wish you a very happy birthday. This is the first time I am writing a letter to someone. I really love you and admire you a lot. Its really worth appreciation, the balance you have maintained in between work, studies and other activities. This just inspires me to use my time more properly. But the best part about is that you really are a very down to earth and simple person. I also think you are very beautiful, intelligent and talented. My all friends also think the same.

I live in the city of Nagpur, state of Maharashtra and we all (me and my friends) invite you here. We all are looking forward to the day you will visit. Hope you will come that too soon. I had not written a letter to you before this since i was not allowed to write one by my parents. But i am allowed to write you through email and rest thanks to EmmaWatson.net.

I again wish you a very happy birthday. May this day bring more happiness and success in your life. I really hope that you will come to Nagpur.

Love,
Gayatri, India

Emma you are an amazing person and a GREAT actress and i really hope from the bottom of my heart that you will have a great 20th birthday.i remember when i saw the first HARRY POTTER movie in 2nd or 3rd grade i thought you were the prettiest girl in the whole wide world, and now as i go into 7th grade.....nothing has changed my thoughts about you.You are still the prettiest girl in the whole wide world =) happy birthday emma!!! you rock!!

shriti, united states

Happy 20th Birthday, Emma! You're not a teenager anymore. Where did the time go? I hope you are well and are having a nice birthday. I am a big fan of yours. Keep up the good work and continue being awesome! :)

Stephanie, United States

Dear Emma,

Congratulations on hitting 20 years! I'm sure you've had a blast so far, and the best times are surely still to come! I, like everyone else here, am a huge fan, and have been for quite some time. Seems a long time since "You've got dirt on your nose, did you know? Just there.", and what a decade it has been, and what a transformation you've gone through. It must be strange being in the spotlight for your teenage years, but you've remained composed and have coped with it so well! You're amazing!

My name is Charles, I'm 17 (nearly 18 [wahoo!]) and I'm from a place near Leeds, not so far from where Matt Lewis lives actually. Ever since the Philosopher's stone, you've been my favourite actress, as well as making Hermione my favourite character in HP. I'm in Upper 6th at a school in Harrogate, and the amount of HP banter that goes down is ridiculous, especially when we have a Physics teacher who is exactly like Snape, with some pretty brutal put-downs to my fellow classmates.

But enough with the HP, that's only a small part of why I think you're superb. People Tree is just brilliant, not only the ethical part of it, but the actual clothes themselves. I've got a t-shirt from there, the one with the picture of a medal on it that you drew (great drawing), and I have the navy cargo shorts as well, which will go down a treat at this year's Leeds Fest! I'll be buying more of the collection when I have the money; sadly, working one day a week at Morrisons doesn't really cut it on the money front, but when I'm on my gap year come summer, I'll be getting a job somewhere a bit less menial.

One thing I'm not missing on my gap year are the final 2 premieres. Expect to see me in Leicester Sq. in November with a few rowdy mates, beside ourselves with excitement to meet you. I don't know how out of place 18 year old boys will look at a HP premiere, but I'm so desperate to meet you, it would be without doubt the highlight of my gap year!

I leave it there, but finally, Happy Birthday!

Have a great day!

Charles Shires, Leeds, UK

Me (looking like an idiot, admittedly)

Happy Birthday To Emma!

We love you!~ love you!

Happy Birthday Emma!

I'm really excited about The Deathly Hallows- which comes out on my birthday :-) It's going to be very strange when all the Harry Potter films are finished, they've been coming out pretty much my whole life. (My fave is The Goblet of Fire)

Anyway, hope you have a nice time!

Jenny :-D

Happy Birthday To A Special Friend!

Happy birthday to a special friend!

Although I haven't known you many years,

Perhaps because you've dried so many tears,

Pleasure reigns as I these greetings send.

Your happiness should last till all things end!

Because you've been so sweet and understanding--

In toughest times you've made me laugh and smile--

Rejoice in your own specialness awhile:

This I'm not requesting but demanding!

How else to make yourself the celebration,

Doing what does not come naturally?

Always your concern has been for me,

Yet now you must endure my adoration!

WISH YOU HAPPY BIRTHDAY.....(EMMA)

I am a BIG fan of you and your work. You have become a great inspiration towards me. I love seeing you play the role of Hermione on the Harry Potter movies(great fan of the books too!) and your other artistic and modeling work is amazing! You are an amazing young lady!:))

Dear Emma,

I know you're going to be hearing "happy birthday" a lot, but only a few (or only me) will list 20 things they like about you:

20- you have a beautiful smile, maybe noone has told you this before...

19- even if you are the "Most profited actress of the decade" and you have enough money to never have to work again, but you go to university like a normal girl.

18- you are one of the nicest people I've ever met, I wish I were nice like you.

17- you are my role model in acting, as a young "building myself" actress, it would be nice to have someone around like you to get some inspiration from.

16- you are the British sunshine, and you definitely are my sunshine!.

15- you know what you want to do in your life and you're only 20.

14- you are very intelligent, and talented, and a lot of girls wish they were you.

13- you remind me of me (ego).

12- you are a star, and still, you participated in a university play "three sisters".

11- it's ridiculous how you care about your fans, and take time to listen to them.

10- you are such a deep person, or at least that's what I think.

9- you care about earth and the whole people tree line, Love from Emma, is inspiring.

8- not like most of nowadays starlets, you are not a "man-eater".

7- you actually READ!!.

6- believe it or not, I've never met you, but I feel like I know you so well, just because you open up in your interviews.

5- you already have 15 great things I've already said!.

4- you've always been really special, you've always had something that many young starlets didn't have.

3- in 2008 you were asked about an advice you'd give to Miley Cyrus, and you said you can't tell people what to do, I loved and admired that.

2- you're a movie star, but I feel like you're a dear friend.

1- you're you!.

from your loyal fan,

Judy, 15 years old, from Syria

It must have been a rainy day when you were born,

but it wasn't really rain, the sky was crying because it lost his most beautiful angel..

Dear Emma,

Happy birthday, you are going to be 20.

I'm from Holland in Europe so my English isn't that good, but still I want to say that you are an role model for my so I really want to say Happy Birtday!!

I thought that a simple short message is not good enough so I wrote a song for you on the melody of another song. That song calls Use somebody- Laura Jansen. You can listen the melody on:

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=M-NZNe8Hx64&feature=related>

And i made a collage for you from pictures I found on the internet!

This is original text:

I've been roaming around
Always looking down at all I see
Painted faces, fill the places I cant reach
You know that I can use somebody
You know that I can use somebody Someone like you, And all you know, And how you speak
Countless lovers under cover of the street
You know that I can use somebody
You know that I can use somebody
Someone like you woohoow woohoow
Someone like you woohoow woohoow

Off in the night, while you live it up, I'm off to Waging wars to shape the poet and the beat
I hope it's gonna make you notice
I hope it's gonna make you notice
Someone like me woohoow woohoow
Someone like me woohoow woohoow

Instrumental break

I'm ready, I'm ready, I'm ready now.
I'm ready, I'm ready, I'm ready now.

woohoow woohoow
Someone like me woohoow woohoow
I've been roaming around,
Always looking down at all I see.

Xoxo, Julia from the Holland.

This is my text:

Her name is Emma
and she is a famous actress.
She is beautiful, a perfect role model.
You know that she is a nicely person.
You know that she is a nicely person.
Someone like she deserves great respect in itself
She is also sweet for those who do not know.
you know that she is a nicely person
you know that she is a nicely person
that girl is Emma woohoow woohoow
that girl is Emma woohoow woohoow.

I hope she is not as Linday Lohan.
And that by going into acting for a long time.
I hope she can make many movies.
I hope she can make many movies.
that girl is Emma woohoow woohoow.
that girl is Emma woohoow woohoow.

Happy birthday Emma
you are 20 now!

Hi, Emma, my name is Roberto Padilla, I'm from Chile, but not if you know the person living in the earthquake occurred where I was very scared because I lived it from start to finish, the earthquake brought many consequences with which I struggle to continue with my normal life, I am writing this because I'm your fan and I would like you to know what happens in other countries as these so far, despite everything that has happened and I never forgot about you or apollarte.

the collection of clothes that you created is beautiful, here in Chile is very difficult to have those clothes, but try to get something, one thing that is just the fact of your collection.

I liked the bag with the england flag autographed by you, my dream would be, but never lost hope some day like to have him meet you someday ati, even if you see 5 seconds would be the happiest person in this life.

I'm your fan since before the movies were made because I liked Hermione when I read the books, but when I saw the film was in love jajajaja. 20 years now I still love interest and you will find very beautiful.

I hope this birthday you are very good with family and friends Auque these far from home.

I wish you the best of luck in this new year, it's a candle but you have to turn on the cake.

Happy Birthday wishes you a fans since the end of the world that loves you and wishes you well in your life, in the movies and in your studies.

hope someday to meet you, I say goodbye with this letter umilde Emma Watson.

Hey Emma, I turned 20 recently as well (December 30th) and I personally was terrified, don't know if you're currently feeling the same, I hope not, if so, honestly once you've got past it it feels the same as 19! I wish you every good thing possible and hope you always stay as nice as you are, you really seem to have your head in the right place and are one of the few truly fantastic role-models out there for young people, as much as the pressure must get to you sometimes you're really making a huge difference to the world that's really appreciated, God bless and have a fantastic birthday, if you are interested, there's an album that I think you'd really enjoy, it's called 'For Emma, Forever Ago' by Bon Iver and although it wasn't written about you personally, it's truly incredible music that you may enjoy, once again, happy birthday and all the best things possible, Rory

HAPPY B-DAY EMMA!!

Dear Emma,

I wish u Happy Birthday!! Tons of new friends, easy exams, hill of fun and peace of mind. Is sad that I can't congratulate u personally, but also this way at least. 😊 I look, that u had hectic year – first bigger exams, new people and you'r new fashion collection. Btw. nice Emma! I hope that there will be size of t-shirt for me... ;-) So, there's much things what I would to tell u, but there's no chance to do it more... privately. Don't worry, I don't have interest by u as girlfriend, but just friend... huh, never mind 😊 To the end? Good luck, no bad things and happy free time with your family and no problems with fame .

Have a nice day!

f.E.W. aka Vitek

The One I love;

I haven't written anything for along time to you. I'm in a hard year. I've many problem. Nothing is easy. I'm sorry I neglected you.

But all of those will be finished. Handicaps, handicaps, handicaps... There are too many, but I don't fear. I live to wipe out all of them. Many times, I'm thinking you. I'm wondering, "What's she doing now?", "where's she", "who's with her". If think so much, I may lost my mind. Because I'm very jealous about you. IT's like a torture to see you with any boy. I get mad!

I dont know why you accomplish to be fascinating like that every time. I'm sure that from now on, God is a great artist. I'm very lucky, I'm on the same earth's surface with you.

I hope you don't love him anymore. I say openly, I hate him. That's not my choise. But I hate every male around you (except Alex :) Just you and me...There'll be nobody. We'll live and die together.

I have loved you for 4 years and more. I still love you like I saw first time. IT has never got lower. I love you more and more from day to day. And I'll never forget you. If there's only one impossible thing in my life, That's it. You'll always be center of my life.

Darling; I'm anxious for you. I'll find you, sure. But it'll take a long time. Only one thing I want from you, Just listen to my words well and believe in me. We'll be happy forever.

You're the best thing happened to me. I thank the God who creates you, so much! I'm gonna love you forever... All my best wishes for you...

Happy Birthday The ONe I LoVe...

I can't believe your 20 today!! No longer a teenager!? I'm not sure if I'll be happy or sad about that when it's my turn! Well I just wanted to say over the last year I think you've achieved some pretty amazing goals. Becoming the face of burberry (my granny loved that! "it's about time we had a proper young lady advertising for burberry!"), your great sucres of 'love from emma' . I couldn't believe it when I found you were going to be working with people tree, I got my prom dress from them and the rest was history (that goes with my allowance), your first year at brown (wow, maybe you'll bump into serena ;-)) and of course HP6!! I loved it! I cried but it was brilliant :-)! Well where ever you are, have a lovely day! And enjoy it! Dan xx

Happy Birthday, Emma!

I really hope you'll have the best 20th birthday ever, as this after all is, the only one you'll ever get (well, Hermione and her marvellous friends did destroy all the time turners in the fifth book, so I reckon you'll be quite wise to enjoy this day!)

As for now, I shall wish you the best of luck for the future; for I am under the impression that girls like yourself, couldn't possibly be stopped by anyone but herself. You'll achieve great things in life, I'm sure.

However, for now, I shall wish you luck, and tell you, what a lovely girl you seem to be. Also, what must be said is that you've changed the life for at least one girl forever, for which I am for ever grateful. Thank you, Emma, and have a very happy birthday indeed!

Love,

All the best Emma

today it become 20 years,
the sky blue and as clear as daylight,
if I was there today also with pleasure for you,
kidnap würd I you even,
in the next restaurant or in a bar,
würd you completely spoil,
since since I you know herscht suchtgefahr,
because everything in you is miraculous,
from head to foot and skin and hair,
is itself here yours perceptibly warms,
if this sounds also rather odd, everything
if each of these words remains true,
it is help yourselves since me saw you,
and if the longing remains insatiable,
if I was close to you at every moment so with pleasure,
however, we are friends and no pair,
therefore, also is more than clearly,
up to now it did not happen even more,
as rare see and a lot blabla,
nevertheless, therefore, compliments are not rare,
since you are nicer than nights starry,
and in the end once again, all the best Emma!

First of all I wanted to wish you a very happy birthday, I hope you have a lovely time with your friends and family.

I've always admired you so much, the way that you are so down-to-earth and grateful of what you've got. I think you're an excellent person, a great role model to everyone and a marvellous artist. I loved every little project that you have been involved in, like the Pople Tree one, that is certainly going to make a huge difference. I think you're the only person on earth that is able to play Hermione so well, no one could ever replace you at all. You made me love the Harry Potter series and even though you're far away, I've always consider you and your character as a really important part of my life, and I'm very grateful to you and all the hard work that you've done all these years in order to make such a perfect interpretation; I know that you had to do a lot of things at once and I think that you've done it perfectly.

Hope you have the loveliest 20th birthday ever, and I wish you lots of happiness, succes and triumph in every little thing that you decide to do. It's really imposible to tell how grateful I am for everything that you've given to us, your fans, through all these wonderful years, but I'm trying to give a little bit of it back to you by this little message.

Love you unconditionally Emma(L)
