Hey Emma,

My name is Moataz, I'm half Egyptian and half Turkish. I'm currently doing my AS level's, it's pretty hard, but I always tell myself "Emma got A's in Al's while juggling, movies, fashion, fans & so much more" so you can say I think about you every day when I study. I am OBSESSED with table tennis, like seriously I play it 6-7 hours a day, even more after I read that you're so good, but you know I forgot to congratulate you on your A's and thank you for giving me motivation to work harder, I remember one of your quote's when you said you feel bad if you know you can get the A or A* so if you can get them you should and make it happen, thank you. I'm not ashamed to admit it but i'v grew up with a crush on you, till now you're the only girl I ever had a crush on & it makes the girl's in school kinda jealous,haha.

I drew a picture of you & hopefully you'll see it, I know it's not that great, but that's my first portrait I just started a week ago, I hope you like it, but I would like to talk about YOU now. You never cease to amaze me how you society expects you to fill the shoes of "Hermine Granger" for the rest of your life, but you just took them off and blossomed into a BEAUTIFUL FLAWLESS girl. I say flawless, not only about your physical flawless appearance, but also you're personality, if you were just like the other actresses you would have turned into a attention drag, but you, you Emma you stayed down to earth, polite, sweet and just everything we love and cherish about you. I would like to thank you for that, and just PLEASE never change, stay the sweet friendly girl we all love so much.

You're turning TWENTY TWO, "THAT'S AWESOME !" haha, I've always loved that interview, but rather than get sad because you're getting older put this quote in mind "Age is a case of mind over matter. If you don't mind, it doesn't matter". Emma I don't want to talk to much because hopefully I'm going to be sending you a letter once I settle down, but you have no idea how much I ADMIRE and RESPECT you, and LOVE the fact that you're always true to your fan's, and always handle everything with such grace and you're always SO smart when you talk,it's breathtaking !

Happy birthday Emma, I know it is going to be AMAZING because, everything and anything around you, always brightness up and become's happy when you're there, you have magical power,no not a spell haha, but you have a magical power were you make everyone smile just being there, and one more thing, I'm so happy that you're life isn't so complicated because of the fame & you can still peruse what you want it life.

To conclude, I hope this year is great for you like every year, filled with success, happiness, and achieving everything and anything you want, because you deserve it!

Happy birthday again Emma I hope you love the drawing, I WILL ALWAYS LOVE YOU EMMA, always remember that xx

You're biggest fan,

Moataz xx

Happy Birthday Emma!!!

I hope you have a great 22nd birthday. I just want to let you know how much I admire you. Ever since I was 5, I wanted to be an actress but I would get stage-fright. You have inspired me to extend my talent and I appreciate it so much! I hope you are enjoying Oxford (hopefully that's the right Uni!). I can't wait till Perks comes out. I am English so I have actually never heard or read the book, but I hope I will be able to grab it this Summer. Also, I have noticed that we have a few things in common... I lived in Paris for 6 years and my brother is 3 years my junior. I am only 12 (almost 13) but I definitely want to start my acting career now! I adore the Harry Potter books and I think you portrayed Hermione's character to perfection. I wish I could have seen you at Selfridges when you launched Rouge in Love! I also posted you a Christmas card so hopefully you will recognise this fan's name. I hope I will someday meet you.

Dear Emma,

Hello! I am a Muggle Born witch from Southern California, and I just wanted to wish Happy Birthday to a truly wonderful human being. Emma, you are my role model. You are so successful; You go to Ivy League colleges and you value education. You have the biggest movie franchise of all time on your resume. You're in a modeling campaign with Lancôme. Through all this, you still remain classy and sophisticated. I look up to you so much every day. You such an inspiring person. You played a perfect Hermione Granger in Harry Potter. I couldn't imagine anyone better to play the part. You channel Hermione in so many ways throughout your life. Again, you were perfect. You are so sweet and down to Earth. I'm so excited for "The Perks of Being A Wallflower". I know you will be amazing in that movie. I'm really looking forward to "Bling Ring". The plot line sounds so modern and real. I know you will do great in that role. Happy Birthday! Best wishes!

Love,

Jessica Balio, Philipines

Dear Emma,

I wish you a very Happy Birthday! For the year to come, I wish you luck, success, happiness and that all your wishes might come true.

I grew up reading, watching and nearly absorbing Harry Potter. Still, I simply love this world full of magic, fantasy and a mixture between reality and fiction.

You did an amazing job as Hermione Granger in all the eight movies and to me it was most intriguing to see you, as well as Daniel Radcliffe and Rupert Grint, become one of the best actresses of the present.

When I was still at school my mom and I spent most of the holidays travelling through a marvelous country called England ;-). This, among other things, is a reason for me studying English and German for my Bachelor of Arts degree right now and I love it; the literature, but most of all linguistics. Thanks to the Harry Potter novels, I decided, when I was twelve years old, to read every book in English and try to become as good as possible in speaking this language.

Keep up the good work and do whatever makes you happy because there will always be fans supporting you,

Lots of love, Anna [22 =)]

Dearest Emma Watson,

Happy 22nd birthday you beautiful woman! I hope you will have a fantastic day filled with good emotions and the people you love around you! I hope your studies in Oxford are going well this year. Hi! My name is D  sir  e and I'm an Italian girl. I'm 16 years old and I'm a Harry Potter fan since I was 6. I can't believe 10 years have passed since I saw you for the first time in the first Harry Potter movie.

I really think you are an excellent actress, a girl full of talent! You were perfect in the Hermione's character. Good job! Besides, you are a beautiful woman and an amazing role model for me.

I love your choice to continue the university and I wish you good luck for the exams! Can't wait to see your next films!! I hope your career in the future will be as good as it's been so far.

I wish you a good birthday, a beautiful life full of happiness, a great career and good luck for the university.

Love,
D  sir  e xx

Hi Emma,

My name is Devangi, and I'm one of your biggest fans, and you have always been my role model. I was impressed by your character when I got to watch "Harry Potter and the Sorcerer's Stone." I had read the book before, and I was surprised and delighted with the way you showed Hermione Granger. I don't care about what others say, but to me I think you are the perfect Hermione, and there will never ever be another Hermione Granger for me. I think you're amazing, and I've always wanted to be like you. I've watched every Harry Potter movie and read every book about a thousand times. If I settle down, and pick up "Chamber of Secrets" I can always imagine you in Hermione Granger. When I was younger, I used to play 'pretend Harry Potter' with my friends, and I would always be you. You are a wonderful actress. My friends and I couldn't wait for your last Harry Potter movie to come out. When it did, 4 days after my birthday, I felt sad and glad at the same time. When I left the theater, I was in tears, because the adventure of Harry Potter, which had always been there for me had come to an end. Till now, I wish Harry Potter movies could start over again. I know I shouldn't ask, but could you please take time, and read this letter, and if possible reply to me. I don't know where I'd be without Harry Potter. Emma, on your interview on youtube, you were thanking us. Why should you? We should be thanking you and others for making our dreams come true, and producing such outstanding movies. Now that you're turning 22, I'm so happy to see you grow older, and start making your career. Happy Birthday, Emma. I wish you luck through your whole life, and hope you become even more famous than what you currently are. Happy Birthday, have a great time, and I know you will become a great person. Like I said you are a wonderful actress, progress on with your career, I know you can. When we celebrate your 40th birthday, I know you'll still be the way you are. You're a great role model for a girl. You're amazing Emma. Best wishes on your birthday. Good luck.

Devangi <3

Happy 8036th day on Earth Emma! I'm so glad you were born, you are the person I greatly admire :) Wishing you more birthdays to come along with all the great things that life has to offer. I just want you to know what an inspiration you are to me. I love you soo much I really am a huge fan of you! I loved you in harry potter, ballet shoes, my week with Marylin, etc. And every project you've done like everything you've done with Lancome! Your so smart and confident, I have learnt so much from you. Most importantly I've learnt to be confident with who I am, not worrying about what other people say. Thankyou so much for teaching me that! I hope you have a beautiful time on your birthday! you deserve to have the best time ever!

Love, Ana, Ecuador :)

Wishing you not just a smile but laughter,
Not just happiness but joy,
Not just riches but wealth,
And most of all love and peace of mind.

Ah... Life is so complicated, but so simple in once. Each step to pass over is a big move for our self. I made choices in my life that brought me to so many things and the futures are mysterious. Even for you, despite what you have accomplished until now, your life is not traced, because is not for anyone. We can only dream, imagine and wish to have the best. However, you are the only one that can change your future with the choices you'll make, but know that what you'll assume will make you happy. There will be ups and downs, but you're strong, determined and able to face many problems. Your charisma and your presence are the reasons for which eyes get on you, not only your beauty. I don't know the British much, but if you represent well your homeland, than you are amazing people. We have to forge ahead, not looking back and envy, the past is the past, it's only a souvenir. But, bigger our steps are, more life will bring pleasure. You've made giant steps and you are at your dawn ages. If you continue this way, damn... what will you become?? We don't know, but honestly, I am very curious ;)

Happy Birthday, Emma, and may love, friendship, chance and hope be with you.

Dear Emma,

Greetings from Bulgaria!

I would like to congratulate you twenty-second birthday and wish you above all alive and healthy, to have much luck, happiness, success in fashion and film. I would like to say something that is actually confirmed by the film critics - that you're an incredibly smart, beautiful, professional actress (and model, of course), which in no way inferior to the older branch. I am impressed by the incredible lifestyle that leads - first you choose to study one of the most prestigious universities in the world - Oxford! Despite the annoying paparazzi, they shoot know that they must not pay attention. What we do in film, fashion, whether film or advertising, you are always original, natural, gathered together all the qualities of a professional model and actress - beauty, aristocracy femininity. Enter equally in the image of "bad girl" in this movie The Bling Ring in the adjacent image, educated, an excellent student Hermione, in whose image went 10-11 consecutive years. Last but not least - your vision is great - this vision of Emma Watson, who always tries to look attractive. And although I've only seen on the screen, I know you're a creature that deserves much more than worldwide fame - you deserve the love of all people worldwide. Because you're a professional, because you know how to do things because you have the qualities for which some of your colleagues, again I say, can only dream of.

Dear Emma, I am writing you this letter because, despite the distance, I feel close in the sense that you're the reason I love Harry Potter so much, you're the reason I watch movies in general, be interested in fashion and so on.

Emma, I was very happy one day to see live, because I told you, you for me not just a favorite actress and model, but something much much more - you are something for which I started to like and interested in so many movies, fashion and cosmetics. I wish you success in all future projects that will do very lucky, because you know it is very important for the success, enjoyment of your birthday and great experiences around the world thy fame. I hoped some time to have the honor to come to Bulgaria, a country with unique landscape, architecture and history. I know you're very curious and amazing girl always looks superb fashion icon of all time. So I really believe that this will happen someday - it will come here in Bulgaria and will be acquainted with the culture of our country.

Dear Emma, Be always with the confidence of this: that you are superior, professional actress with amazing features and a model which is worth struggling companies not only as CHANEL and Lancome, but all fashion designers. Be alive and well again and enjoy them the most important celebration in your life!

From: Assen Stoykov, 24, Sandanski, Bulgaria.

Happy Birthday Emma. :)

I hope you are having a great 22nd birthday and just have some time to relax from all the work you are doing at the moment. Wishing you all the best for this new year, stay that amazing like you are.

Emma Watson,

Je te souhaite un très joyeux anniversaire, et comme je ne suis pas très bonne en anglais, je vais juste dire que je t'aime très fort, et que tu seras toujours éternellement la meilleure pour moi.

Merci pour tout.

Je t'aime.

Happy 22nd Birthday Emma!!! 2011 has gone by and we are now in 2012. Last year we saw you play Hermione for the last time as the Harry Potter era came to an end, in which you gave an amazing final performance. You launched your third and final line with People Tree (which Safia Minney has revealed was a successful hit and it seems the line has sold out) and your collaboration with Alberta Ferretti "Pure Threads". You also became the face of Lancome. And you officially kicked off your post-Potter career with your role as Lucy in My Week With Marilyn. While it was a smaller role than usual, I thought your performance was brilliant and it left me wanting more of it. And now we enter 2012, in which your new film, Perks of Being a Wallflower, will be released later this year, and you've recently signed on to star in Bling Ring. There are also some projects that I've heard you've been in talks with and they seem official, such as Your Voice in My Head and, if it ever takes off, Beauty and the Beast, but we'll have to wait for confirmation to be sure.

It's going to be another busy year, but for today I just hope you are able to relax and have fun with family and friends and have the best birthday yet. Happy Birthday Emma.

Love,

Kevin, USA

Emma you are the biggest inspiration to me. You have been my role model and idol since I was 8 years old. You are so beautiful, classy, refined, and intelligent. You have inspired me to get more involved in humanitarian work and to be more acute to my surroundings. Your emphasis on education is really refreshing in so young a person and it reminded me that it IS cool to enjoy and value education. Thank you so much for being such a great role model, and never forget that you are perfect and God loves you. I will always be your fan. xx

Hey Emma,

Happy Birthday Emma! I just wanted to tell you that the last time you were on The Today Show in New York, I met you there! I had the sign that said "If we we're to look into the mirror of Erised, we would see us meeting Emma!" You were the sweetest person I've ever met, and it was so refreshing to know that my favorite person was exactly what I thought she was, which is an extremely generous and incredible actress. You took the time to sign my book and take a picture with me, and when you read my sign you literally looked SO touched. Thank you for giving me this amazing memory of meeting you, and good luck with everything you set your mind to.

With love,
Nicole, United States

Emma, I'm a huge fan, stay classy.

With those shinning eyes,
those beautiful glittering smiles,
you have me stunned and breathless.
A dazzling diva,
with more than just a pretty face,
a magnificent personality
that robs every heart of its innocence.
Nature so radiant,
coupled with a melodious and intoxicating
laughter,
Your born to break hearts...
Yours is a deadly combination of beauty with brains,
all i can do is wish for you all happiness,
whether it dusts or rains...
May God keep upon you His glowing grace..
May all your wishes come true..
that's my wish for you.
May this life becomes all that you want it to..
All your worries stay small,
and each road leads you where you want to go..
That's my wish for you.
I wish I get a chance to meet His extraordinary creation,
then probably, i can hope for divination.
Just to tell that I love the way you are,
Girl, you are just amazing....:)

Happy 22nd Birthday Emma Watson!!! I am Maricela Cruz. I just want to say that I admire you very much; you're a great inspiration to me and to the world. As an actress and model, you are the best. God sees you and blesses you and Jesus Christ loves you very much. I call "Blessing for you from above". You do not know me, but I would like you to know several things about me. First, my dream is to be a writer. And second, I'm a little feminist as you say. Third, I defend the rights of animals and am fascinated by the dogs. And fourth, I am a Christian and I accepted Jesus as my only Lord and personal savior. Although it costs me a lot to be Christian. As Paul says, sometimes I do what I do not want. You are a great blessing for all and you're a great example to follow Emma. Never change. Congratulations on the great successes. Happy birthday Emma Watson!!!

Dear Emma,
I am Mara Alexandra and I come from Germany. I hope you be well. You be a very important part of my heart and I want to say: Happy Birthday! I hope you have a wonderful day and all your wishes come to fulfillment.

I know you now more than 10 years, not personally, but I grew up with you. I am proud that I was permitted to become acquainted with you, a wonderful person. Inside you I found the girl and now the woman, who means so much to me now, that she is a part of my life, forever! You are so much for me: a friend and so much more. And all what I can say is "Thank you".

I wish you a memorable day and good luck for all new projects. You were breathtaking in the last Harry Potter film and you was the best Hermione for ever and ever. I cried with you and I am proud that I was able to witness this time. I am excited about your new projects.

Have a beautiful day!

Love Mara Alexandra xx

My name is Trevor here from Pasco, Washington of the United States. I wanted to wish you a very Happy Birthday and I hope it's one of the best ones yet. When I first heard of the very first Harry Potter movie (later after the release of the first book), I was very excited to see it. Little did I know, the three main characters (Harry, Ron, and Hermione) would be played by three of the most talented actors I have ever seen. When I first saw you, I thought you were really cute and over the years and with the release of each of the remaining 7 movies, I saw you become perhaps the most beautiful woman I've ever seen in my life.

You've had a few other movies that you've starred in and in each, I think you were an amazing actress. You have a great personality and really know how to pull people into the story of the movies themselves. It doesn't even end with movies; you've even gone into modeling and with every look I've seen, you've looked very beautiful.

It has always been my dream to see you in person and meet you, but the difference in countries however and my city being a bit out of the way has shown that it may not be as likely. I did however hear one of my friends living in Spokane, Washington say that he saw Daniel a couple weeks ago. Thought it was pretty cool having one of the trio so close by (about half an hour away from here).

Anyways, I'll never give up my dream of meeting you someday and hope that this dream comes true at some time in my life. I know that if we were to meet at some point, you'd immediately see that I can easily be one of the nicest people you've ever met (gotten that from just about everyone I've met over the years). Take care and I hope you continue to live out your dreams and make the choices that will make you the happiest girl alive. Again, happy birthday and I wish you well!! :-)

Love always,
Trevor G.

P.S. My cat wanted to say hello as well ;-)

Happy Birthday to Emma ☺

May all your dreams come true

Dear Emma Watson,
My name's Marinella...I'm seventeen years old...I live in Sicily (Italy) ..forgive me if I make some mistake =)
This summer I sent two letters to the PO BOX..but I don't know if you received them ...In those letters there's was my entire life...I wrote you about my dreams,my life,my goals and my thoughts....I wanted to share with you my feelings! I wrote you about one of my favourite trilogies of books..." The breadwinner" , "Parvana's journey" and "Mud city". It's a trilogy that makes you understand the deep sense of life...I love the role of Parvana...I'd like be part of a movie based on this story...but I live in Sicily and we are marginalised from the rest of the world..There's another great book called "Between Shades of gray" which is awesome. ...it's one of the most realistic book I have ever read ..It would be incredible play the role of Lina...the main character of the story..
I wrote you about "Chiara Badano" ...a girl.....with a deep faith...and a strong sense of loyalty towards JesusI'd like have the chance to do a movie based on it....She's the coherence of the faith!
When I watch a good movie...I'm happy and sad at the same time...I'm happy because I hope to do something like that in the future...I'm sad because every time,I realise that this will never happen. Maybe you don't mind because you have everything, but I think that a "rich" person is not who has the most, but who gives the most!
You've been very lucky...It's like the Harry Potter's producers found you...God blessed you..He is always by your side...you're good...you're not like the other actresses...you don't feel your self like star... Jesus will be with you as long as you'll be like this..
Jesus is now with all of us...so I just want to wish you a great happy birthday ...I hope you'll do something about my dreams...maybe I'm just dreaming...but I want to keep dreaming..with your help. I see people win, but I never win! I want to have a chance! The same that Hermione gave to you! After secondary school I'll go to university to study foreign languages and foreign literatures..Everyone thinks that I'll do something like teacher and I let them believe in it...but It's not what I want to do..I want to study foreign languages to have the chance to act with foreign actors and actresses someday...to explore the world with no problems...to do something for other people....but I feel ambarassed saying this....HELP ME EMMA! Actually you're the only one who makes me love the world of the cinema...because you don't feel yourself like star...so you light a spark inside of me..

P.S. I know I'm a dreamer...but dreams is the only things that are free...in this world...

Happy Birthday dear Emma.

HAPPY XXIth BIRTHDAY!

The Fool is the card #22.

The bag on the staff indicates that he has all he needs to do or be anything he wants, he has only to stop and unpack.

He is on his way to a brand new beginning.

But the card carries a little bark of warning as well.

While it's wonderful to be enthralled with all around you,
excited by all life has to offer, you still need to watch your step,

lest you fall and end up looking the fool.

Happy B'day Emma
