Dear Emma,

I can't believe you're turning 23 this year! It's been amazing growing up with you through the Harry Potter films, and more after that. You have been such an inspiration from the beginning and I wish nothing but the best for you! I hope that you will enjoy being 23 as much as you enjoyed the past 22 years of your life! :D I can't wait to see you grow more as an artist and as a person. And I just want to thank you for being such a good role model. You have never failed to inspire me in everything that you do. I love how passionate you are and how you're not afraid to try new things. You've shown me such amazing things and ways on how to live right and how to be comfortable and confident with myself. I hope that you continue being this talented girl that I grew up with and this wonderful woman that inspires me everyday. You are absolutely beautiful inside and out. Please continue doing these incredible movies that are both very meaningful and fun.

Evangeline Mendoza

P.S.

Please think about visiting the Philippines! :D
I'll be waiting!

You know, It's More Fun in the Philippines!

Oh and look I got inspired by your pixie haircut so I decided to cut my hair. And you know what, it was the perfect decision, because I've never been more confident about myself before. And also my friend got me as model for her school project, it was an awesome experience. Look! I'm dressed like Sam on Perks! :D

Happy b-day Emma, my best wishes to you... Love your attitude and your style, the way you have been so successful and still be so nice as a person... You're an inspiration, hope to meet you someday...

It's the hard work that I see, simplicity yet uniqueness of personality, educated now woman, and basically the role model people look up to But this does not mean pressure nor that if you ever fail, then that's it. You inspire confidence in one's own beliefs, and that the only way to true happiness, you fail being yourself which is, in a way, liberating. And now I will say this Emma:

I admire your dedication for knowledge, by going to university you show the break of stereotypes that school is the only to get a job. Your inner beauty done by your confidence in yourself and acceptance of one's own flaws. I wish you, in this very simple way, a very Happy Birthday from an admirer and wish only the best things in life
Thank you for inspireing only the best in me..

Sincerely,
Shadya

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

EMMA

Hi Emma,

Happy 23rd birthday!

This is the first year I'm finally writing to you on your birthday. You've made such incredible sacrifices by becoming an actress at age 10, but your childhood and your education are not among them. I remember starting my freshmen year of college at the same time as you, and I would think about what it must be like for you to go through those same huge changes with the whole world watching.

What I admire most about you, Emma, is that you pursue your aspirations with the upmost courage and class. You are unafraid to be real, to challenge yourself with bolder roles, to move to the states, and to master the American accent. Not to mention you cut all of your hair off!

And it doesn't stop there. Emma, you've helped a lot of people in realizing they want to act. Myself included. I was a big fan of Jennifer Connelly and Anjelica Huston as a kid, but I really looked to you as the actress who defined my generation. To this day, you've exceeded everyone's expectations of you, including your own.

I want you to know that although you can lean on your friends and family for support, you are also deeply respected and adored by fans like me. I want you to take chances, make mistakes, and emerge with all the grace and strength I've seen in you these past thirteen years. Emma, you've proven to be an extraordinary young woman, and I thank you, from the bottom of my heart, for putting your soul into Hermione, for enriching the lives of workers in Bangladesh, and for inspiring little women like me to be BIG! Enjoy your career!!!

Love,
Arielle (USA)

Happy birthday Emma! I hope you have got a wonderful year, with a lot of sweet people, because you deserve the best! You are one of my favorite actress, and a big inspiration for me. I also hope you will be in a lot of great movies next year, and I just cant wait to see The Bling Ring. I love you so much.

And, a...a...a...if you are going to be married to Will, tell us, we will congratulate to u!

We accept the love we think we deserve.*

Dear Emma

Happy Birthday!

I really hope you can enjoy your day with all your loved ones!

I also hope that you like my collage. I tried to mix 'famous Emma' and 'private Emma' a bit with all the pictures, as they are parts of your personality.

To be honest, I really wish you draw attention to this.
I just recently watched 'Perks of being a Wallflower' (it never was in cinemas and just got released on dvd here) and I thought with this role you surely had contact with mental illnesses. Or maybe you even know someone who has a mental illness. I think it would be very honourable if you could raise your voice for this. Society is still way too afraid to talk about mental illnesses and in my opinion there aren't enough researches about it. I for myself got diagnosed with borderline disorder a few months ago after almost ten years not knowing what's really going on with me.

I (and I'm sure many of your other fans as well) would be extremely happy if you would at least consider raising your voice for this, as you are a role model to many people, including me.
It would mean a great deal to me.

Love
Sheila B. from Switzerland

Dear Emma,

Here is a story that I am doing, you (along with other fans on this site) will be the first to read a few paragraphs of my story, which I hope to sell one day. The story is called Through the Years with Harry Potter. Here it is, hope you like it.

Some believe, while others don't. But as for me I believe in that other world, the world where things are different from ours. "But of course you can't get there by bus, train, airplane, boat or car." These are the words from my research paper on my favorite book, Harry Potter and the Prisoner of Azkaban by J.K.Rowling. The only ways of getting there is by dreaming and imagination. What world might I be talking about? Well you may have to ask Joanne Katherine Rowling (for short J.K.Rowling) or fans just like me.

I wouldn't call myself the number one fan of Harry Potter, but I could call myself a fan of Harry Potter and J.K.Rowling. If you were to ask me a question about Harry Potter, I would probably be able to answer it right away. Although my room isn't covered with Harry Potter stuff, I am a huge fan and this is my story.

So there is small look at my story. I can't believe that the Harry Potter movies are done; I have watched almost all of the movies you have been in. Emma have a fanatic day, it is your day to do something special for yourself.

Happy Birthday Emma!

I love you, i don't know if you like when people calls you their role model but for me you are mine, (you and Grace Coddington).

You are amazing, i loved perks, it showed me that being a depressed kid doesn't mean that i don't deserve life, so Emma happy birthday you are amazing just the way you are, never try to be like anyone else and never have a doubt about the decisions you make, every mistake is just another step closer to the end of the life's roller coaster.

Ps: I'm too exited to watch The Bling Ring, Sofia Coppola it's one of my favorite directors and you're one of my favorite actresses!

Dear Emma,

I would like to wish you, that all your birthday dreams and wishes come true.

This new year of your life is another step for you, which will be hopefully, easy to make, but will make you enjoy your life more and more.

May the best of your past be the worst in your future and may the best of your wishes be the least of what you get.

I hope your 23rd birthday is really special, just like you.

I hope all your friends will be able to celebrate with you and I from my side just want to tell you thank you and your parents, that you are like you are.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY!!

With best wishes from Germany,
Nikita

I see no way to get to you
Maybe it is wrong point of view
My mind was out of order
My words have crossed some border
I've lost ability to think
I've lost one or both wings
Hope someday my probs will be solved
No matter what have been told
You know I'm trying to stay good
And do not let them alt my mood
I am not saint, not evil either
You know I'm just a f..ing breather
I have admit my love not growing
I must not get from you, but giving
I wanted to change my life for you
But instead of solve probs I got new
Your still the one for me I know
But I'm not right for you.. No, no..
Maybe I'll turn to who you want.
Hope your wish is not James Bond.
Don't think what I forgot the subject
I writing it to God sent project
So now your 23, time flies
I wish to you not ever get any lies
To be as beauty as you are
To always win.. You does.. Hurrah!!!
To be with family more often
To be your bf to you more soften
To your fans to be more gentle
To your critics not be judgmental
To shot HP series in future
To iPhone have soup-resistant feature
To your friends always be constant
To always know and make life's content
To get as many good roles as you want
To just know what you are truly gold
To be better singer then Adele
Or maybe as good I would tell
To learn French and speak like native
To freely sing Farmer's songs motive

To have a star named in you name
To gain even more than you have fame
To always be happy like no one
To even when all sad has fun
To let those and your wishes fulfills
To have some Genie to done your wills
To be omnipotent like God
Ok, I'll stop.. Coz you're saying
"whaaatt?!!!"
So be the one you always been.
Main wish to you is always win.
Sorry me if I said something wrong
Just wanna be your real-life Ron ;)

Ivan, Russia

I just want to say thank you very much

My Muse

My Muse to you I write.

These few words on the side,
to say what you give us
Day by day in dark and lighte.

You take away the stress
and let us feel strong again,
to contiune in our process.

For us you are the doubtless main
Inspiration for our work.
Whatever visions we will gain.

You bring us even with out talk,
the solution for every fail who came like a shark.

May it seem so ordinary,
never you failed on us
to bring some new energy.

For every one a bless and everyone can get access.

I want to say with this praise,

Hi Emma. Happy 23rd birthday! You've been my favorite actress since we were 11, but this is the first year I'm finally writing to you on your birthday. I've looked up to many actors over the years because I aspire to be one as well, but you're the one who most consistently surprises me with your great choices and your terrific ability to remain yourself and go to college under the spotlight. As a graduating college student myself, I know how hard that is. I'm happy to still be your fan even after HP ended, and I'm really looking forward to your upcoming projects, especially "The Bling Ring" this June! I hope you have a great day, and may you have many more happy birthdays. I'll try to write every year!

Much love and support,

The insignificance of the Human Being is proportional to the inability to make a difference, but more important than that, is to value yourself and to reach the conclusion that after all, you can be happier.

Happy Birthday and many sweet kisses,
Emma. :)

I pray every day that you are alright that you are happy, because you are one of a kind, Emma. If I can just make everything fall where it should be, I would. If I could make life better for you, I would. But I can't. All I can do is to let you know that mine has been better because of you – it really is. That is the reason why I want to congratulate you. I just want you to know how much influence you have been to me. Because of you, now I really understand that I am alright exactly as I am. Thank you so much Emma. Believe it or not I have learned so much from you. You are my hero and I just want you to know that. I drew a picture. I drew a person who is important to me. I drew you. Happy Birthday Emma!

Happy Birthday Emma!! Can't believe that you are 23 years old. For one, it's hard to believe so much time has passed. It seemed like only yesterday that you were a little girl, but now you are a beautiful grown 23 year old woman. On the other hand you've accomplished so much at a young age and there's still so much more to come. Your life has been a very busy one, constantly having to juggle everything from you career, school, and your personal life. I hope that all is well with university and that you are almost done so things are slightly less hectic. 2013 looks like it's going to be a huge year for you. You will even be given the trailblazer award at the MTV movie awards the day before birthday. That seems like quite a birthday present. I wish that you have a happy and fun birthday with family and friends and that you get the privacy and peace you deserve.

Happy 23rd Birthday Emma.

Love, Kevin.

I don't want to bore you so the I just want to say: You're the best actress, you're a beautiful model and HAPPY BIRTHDAY dear Emma Watson and have a fantastic day with all your friends and your family and lots of presents!!!!!! I'll always watch your films and read your interviews or whatever you do!!!!!!!!!!

The best wishes from your big fan Anna Zuleta

Dear Emma,
my name is Mara Alexandra and I come from Germany. I send a message to you, because I want to say: Happy Birthday. I hope you have a wonderful day and all your wishes come true. I am very proud that I got the chance to see you.

I haven't get to know you personally, but you be a very important part of my life. You give me a model, a favorite actress and a true friend. I would say thank you for all the years you be in my heart.

You be a wonderful and famous actress and I know, that this life isn't easy every day, but in my opinion, you be a girl and now a woman, who is breathtaking in her job. You took as a role model for many people in the history and has still managed to keep both feet firmly in the life. I can imagine that sometimes you wish to be a normal woman, but Emma, you give so many people courage, luck, hope and love and for this I want to say thank you, because I may be one of those people.

Thank you, that you be in my heart,
Thank you, that you are there,
Thank you for your love.

Your projects are very interesting and in my mind you be an unbelievable actress. I was very enthusiastic about "The Perks of being a wallflower".

I wish you a wonderful and unforgettable day with your family and your friends.

I miss you so much, although I don't meet you.

I love you.
