Dear Emma

Time passes by so quickly and I can't believe you're already turning 24 in a few days.

Not only does this mean
I'm turning 24 this year too (we're both born on a Sunday!),

but this also means that I admire you and your work for almost 13 years.

It sometimes feels like it was only yesterday that little Hermione told Ron he got dirt on his nose.

It's been one hell of a ride. ;-)

I wish you to enjoy your birthday, even though you're probably be filming.

I also wish you good luck for your graduation.

I'm proud to be a fan.
And I'm really looking forward to finally watch
Noah in a few hours.

Love,

Shzila from Switzerland

PS: The firework photos are self made. :-)

Giving best wishes from heart

Dearest Ms. Emma Charlotte Duerre Watson,

It is me again and forever will be, for you. Blessi, a young lassie from the Philippines. Oh! well yes, I am so sorry for this, I should've said and greeted you first a very happy 24th birthday! There you go! Happy 24th birthday Emma! So yes, what I can say this time to caught your eyes and captivates your heart. I am sorry for being not a straightforward and with these nonsenses, I know you probably don't need a long message because if in case you're reading this now, I know that you still have countless messages to read on and I don't mean to be a hindrance for you and for others however it is just, I can't help it, I can't help myself from writing you a very perfect birthday message as much as possible because we both know or rather the whole world knows that you deserves it, you deserves a perfection because for me and for all of us, you are very perfect and I do hope that you also think the same thing even though we all know that in this world nobody and nothing is perfect because if there is, then there would be no room for improvements anymore, so with that, I am sorry. It's better I guess, if I say it's all up to you, what you think about yourself. I mean, no pressures at all. You can think, act and be whoever and whatever you want and need to be. I am still going to support you anyway. Yes, I know, it's hard to believe right? Because we have not yet actually meet and talk with each other for personally real. You might say, I am just saying all of these but I don't care, I still and will forever believe wholeheartedly in you. Why not? You're Emma Charlotte Duerre Watson who has been studying and working at the same time for ages and now you're finally about to graduate this coming May, congratulations for that! I am very much proud of you, more than you think I am. Not to mention, you've managed to endure every hectic schedule, every stressful work, every pain, every sleepless night, every pressure, every nervous, every deadline and all right let's just say everything. I mean how do you seriously do that? Because that is very much impressive, it makes me think like you have been using 'Hermione's time-turner' ever since and that's so great for you. Anyhow, so with that I trust you, I know that you've already learned so many beautiful life lessons in this world, not only because of the lessons that Brown have been teaching to you but also with all your experiences in life that makes you one-of-a-kind and aware what is right and wrong. So, I guess there's no anymore reasons to feel all the bad feelings in this world because you have got all the most wonderful blessings you could ever have such as successful education and career, endless love and support from your family, friends and fans and of course you're wonderful you. I am sorry if you're tired and overwhelmed now, I actually want to add some more and I feel like I am about to write a novel for you because I have really so many things I want to say to you, I am actually even willing to tell everything myself to you, if that's what it takes, for you to trust me. If I sound so creepy now? I am very sorry, I don't and never want to scare you of course. You're just really my very top-of-the-list celebrity woman idol. My feeling for you is just the same as what you feel to Meryll Steep, Renee Zellwegger, Julia Roberts and Natalie Portman but multiply that feeling by a zillion. That is also how much I want to see you. That's is why, you know I've been studying so hard to finish college and eventually have a corporate position in the job and finally fly away to London and hopefully meet you there and at least just have a moment with you. A moment to thank you personally for being such a one of the greatest inspirations for all time, to me. Will you wait for me, Emma? Please? Thank you and I guess, this is it. I don't know if you would be able to read this but if you wouldn't now, I hope you would still keep this in your journal so probably someday, when you have free time you could read or reread this. I love you so much Emma!

Love always,
Blessi, Philippines

Dear Emma,

I'm greatly enjoying watching all that you're doing. You've grown up to be a remarkable actress and young woman. Wishing you another awesome year!

Chuck, USA

Dear Emma:

You first caught my attention in the 2012 film, Perks of Being a Wallflower, and became my all-time favourite actress with the likes of Natalie Portman, Lauren Cohen, Sophie Turner, Emilia Clarke, Jennifer Lawrence, Shailene Woodley and Adèle Exarchopoulos.

Words cannot express how proud I am of you for keeping up with your university studies through all the hectic hollywood drama, fame and travel! You really are a ROLE MODEL and an INSPIRATION for young people. School is important and true it isn't for everyone, but young celebrities should really consider it more. It makes them so much more well-rounded and respectable!

You are smart, beautiful, talented, well-spoken, classy and creative and I can't wait to see NOAH and your future projects.

Happy Birthday Emma, congrats on graduating this May and enjoy your special day!! <3

Best wishes,

Ronny Chen, Canada

Happy Birthday Emma! You truly are amazing.

Greg, United States

Hi Emma,
Happy 24th birthday!

This is the second year in a row that I'm writing to you on your birthday. I don't usually do this for people I don't know personally, but you've been an important inspiration to me.

The work you do and the care and consideration you put into everything, no matter how big...

...Or small, makes you stand out so completely.

I noticed this as a child as well. I wanted so much to be like you, to have something to work hard for.

I can tell that what you do makes you unbelievably happy because it's contagious.

You are incredibly positive about your whole experience as an actress, even when it's extremely tough.

I want you to know that even though you've had to come into your own with the whole world watching, there was never, nor will there ever be, any pressure from me. Just keep staying true to yourself!

Here's to many more years of happiness and discovery.

Cheers,
Arielle (USA)

Dear Emma:

Wow, it's so amazing that you are 24 years old now!!! You have always been my ideal hero because you have your own thoughts and never just simply follow world trend although you have such huge fame. Being yourself is very hard, especially if you are known worldwide, I can't imagine how difficult is the life process that you have been experiencing. You work so hard to protect your private life and to protect the ones you love from harming under the mass media. Maybe some of your fans will feel depressed because you seldom show yourself under the big screen, but I feel happy for you because you have successfully achieved what you've been seeking.

I have the same dream for 6 years: I want to be part of TEAM WATSON one day!!! I truly admire you and I believe that I can learn a lot from you, so I'm working really hard to reach this goal. Nothing in this world would be much better than becoming partners with your role model, isn't it? XDDD You've once said in your acceptance speech, "If you truly put your heart into what you believe in, even if it makes you vulnerable, amazing things can and will happen." This has become my motto, and I've set it as my standard to make sure I go for what I love. Thank you so much for being such an inspiration.

Meeting you in person is always what I wish for. Despite the far distance between us (you are in the UK or the US, and I live in Taiwan), I still believe I can meet you someday. I also hope to get your retweets one day XD I sincerely invite you to visit my hometown TAIWAN and expose to Asian culture. (It's such a privilege that you mentioned TAIWAN in your #Noah tweets Xd) It's a place filled with friendly people, and there are many delectable snacks, too! I'm sure you will like it <3

PS. Look at the pictures!!! #Noah in TAIWAN #worldwide :D

It's really a joyful moment that you are 24 now, but also remember that 24 years of your life has gone away from you, it's kind of a fear we live by, but we don't think of it more often because of the happiness we are surrounded by.... So enjoy every moment of the present and hope best for the future.. Happy birthday Emma.

Dear Emma,

my name is Mara Alexandra and I come from Germany.

Sorry for my English.

I hope you are well.

I wish you more than a wonderful day and I write you because I want to say:

HAPPY BIRTHDAY.

I try to write you every year because you mean so much to me and these letters are insufficient to tell you how much.

Without you there would be a lost part in my heart.

This little girl, I saw in the TV and who inspired me, became a woman who is more than that.

I saw you in Harry Potter, in Ballet Shoes, in My Week with Marilyn; in the Perks of being a Wallflower, in Bling Ring and now in Noah.

I love your films so much because when I see you, I am happy.

Anytime I hope I will meet you and then I can say thank you for being there for me, because you replaces my best friend.

And now you are more than a best friend.

Since that moment when I see you for the first time in Harry Potter you are there.

But how can I explain you that?

There isn't a word in this world which describes it.

In this year you were in Berlin and I didn't know it.

I know I would have had to know it but I'm sorry.

Believe me when I heard it, it was sadly because you were there and I not.

Emma I wish you a fantastic day with your family and your friends.

It is breathtaking how you manage all this pressure.

I hope that you are happy and that all your wishes come true.

Thank you for all these years.

Your hand is always there to help me to stand up. Thank you

I would like to say you more but I must finished every letter and now it is time.

Celebrate this day with your lovely family and friends.

I'm there for you when you need me.

I've created a video for you and I hope that it received and that you like it.

I miss you so much, but I know that you are there, not personally, but you are there and that is the important point.

I love you

Robin, The Netherlands

Dear Emma Watson,

I wish you wholeheartedly happy birthday. We are the same age and I don't know how you feel about turning 24 but I'm scared about it. I start to realize how quickly time passes by and how little I have done in my life. When I think about how much you have already accomplished it makes me feel both happy and sad at the same time. Among these great things you have done there is one, maybe not so great but very important to me. You inspire me. You've inspired me to go back to college after sort of dropping out (Congratulations on your coming graduation by the way). You also inspire me to write. One of my dreams is that one day you will read one of my books but for now I want to dedicate this following piece to you.

They say perfection is the lack of flaws. I don't believe that something flawed is condemned to be imperfect. All people are flawed. We are mixtures of good and bad qualities with no right or wrong amount but nothing is set in stone. That is what makes us all unique. We are like paintings. Our genes are the empty canvas and our experiences are the colors in the palette but ultimately we choose what we draw.

Most of us are pretty bland, boring, easily forgettable. Some of us are appalling, quite disturbing. Very few of us though are truly magnificent, timeless works of art. You are one of those very few. Every time I see you everything else fades to gray while you stand there vibrant, full of vigor. You are the subtle smell of nature waking up from it's slumber letting you know that winter is over. You are the cool summer breeze that tames the merciless heatwave. You are the slight glimpse of a rainbow in the raging thunderstorm. You are the sound of leaves crackling in the fall. You are everything that is beautiful in life. No, beautiful is not a strong enough word to describe you. You are perfection.

Happy Birthday Emma!! Today you turn 24. At this point you only have few weeks before you finally graduate. I know you've been looking foward to it for a long time and it's been quite the journey getting there, but the time has finally arrived. It will also be easier for you hopefully since you won't have to juggle as much with your schedule anymore.

Anyway, Happy 24th Birthday Emma and congratulations on your future graduation.

Love, Kevin, USA

Dear Emma,

First of all I wanna wish you a happy birthday and I hope you have a nice day surrounded by your loved ones. I know you don't know who I am but as weird as it sounds, you have helped me a lot during my whole life. Since I was a little girl I have seen you at the cinema and admired you and not just because you are an excellent actress, that you absolutely are, also because you have been an inspiration for an entire generation with your kindness and sympathy. One of the things I like about you the most is your courage, especially when you decided to study abroad while you were also thinking about your acting career. You showed the whole world how brave you are, proving them that you are not just a pretty face, you are much more than that. I also admire how grateful you are with your fans and how much you care about them. I saw you in the premiere of Noah, in Madrid, and I am absolutely honest saying that it was the BEST DAY OF MY LIFE 🙌. You motivated me (also did my father) to start studying more and nowadays I am living in Madrid (I am from the Canary Islands) in my first year at university trying to become a better student following your steps in college.

I am aware of how improbable it is for you to notice my presence because you have so many fans but I am fully happy about being your number one fan so as long as you make movies or do whatever you want, I will always be there 🙌 Have fun and always be yourself.

Happy 24th Birthday Emma Watson!

Hello, Emma. I am Maricela Cruz. I want to tell you what you mean to me: I see you as a beautiful woman, but also very smart and talented. You are wonderful! Your face is so delicate and attractive; your eyes are expressive. Congratulations! You have achieved great things! You're not only pretty. You are a great person! I have noticed that you have a big heart and a brilliant mind. What you mean to me? You are an integral human, you are a valuable woman! I'm sure that you are loved by the most powerful God. God blesses you. I bless you too. I'm glad you've met Patti Smith. I hope one day I can meet you. My favorite hobbies are: watching news and pictures of you, listening music, reading, writing (My native language is Spanish), walking, watching good movies, watching anime, kawaii stuff, dogs and animals, etc. I thank God for hearing my prayers. I asked for peace of SPIRIT. Lately, I have felt increasingly satisfied and happy. However, sometimes, I still quarrel when I get disgusted. Since already I congratulate you on your graduation from Brown University! And again, happy birthday!

I already went to see the "NOAH" movie and I was fascinated. Great performances and great special effects! I'll have to go see the movie more times. I published my photos, on Twitter and Facebook, from when I went to the cinema for to see NOAH.

Now I will put my favorite photo of you of this year and also photos of me.

Dear Emma,

Happy birthday! I've admired you since I was a little girl and I love how you've evolved into a beautiful and intelligent young lady. Thank you so much for being a wonderful role model to all the young women out there; it is so rare to find stars who are not only gorgeous, but also studious, reflective and sensitive to the world around us. I hope that your year ahead will be one filled with joy, love and peace, and that your career will continue to grow and prosper. Many happy returns!!!

PS. I recently attended the London premiere of Noah and it was pretty much a dream come true seeing you in person.
By some stroke of luck I scored a free ticket to the screening at the end of the red carpet walk and I absolutely adored the movie! You were totally fab, both on screen and in person. Thanks so much for signing my notebook! xxx

Best wishes,

Cherie, United Kingdom
