HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO YOU, DEAR EMMA!

I wish you, with all my heart, to be happy, healthy, succesfull and inspiring. It's been many years since you first lit up the big screen as Hermione. Since that time, we've seen you in many succefull and truly good films. I am really looking forward to seeing what you have for us in the future.
The project of yours that made me the most proud to be ypur fan is not a movie, but you gender equality campaign. I admire you for standing up for a subject like this, in a society that can easily blame such movements. I support you with all my heart, I hope others do, too.

Once more, happy birthday and many prosperous years.

Love,
Nefeli, Greece

Dear Emma,

I hope that your birthday will be as special as you are. You are a wonderful person inside and out. I wish you the best of luck with your career. I look forward to seeing you on the big screen soon and the years to come!

Dear Emma,

This is the third year I'm writing to you on your birthday. I was proud to be your fan when I was eleven, but at twenty-four, I've never been prouder. Emma, the work you've done in support of gender equality this year is beyond commendable. It's about time someone stepped up to address the myriad of issues surrounding feminism, and I couldn't be happier that it was you, the woman who was already my hero to begin with. When I was a gender studies student in high school, I wished that somehow my teacher's messages would be broadcast to the world, not just to our small group of teenagers. I have never seen such a global reaction to the crisis of sexism until you made your speech last September. I'm sure by now you're aware of the enormous impact you have within our generation, especially. I'm extremely pleased at your thoughtful consideration for the world at large and that you use your fame to help make positive change. Thank you, not only for your incredible work as an actress, creating stories that will stay with me forever, but for taking charge where we need you most. I GREATLY look forward to seeing you as Belle in "Beauty and the Beast" in two years!! :D

Love and hugs,

Arielle

HAPPY BIRTHDAY EMMA :D

Go get some Loose-leaf green tea and matcha. Republic of Teas matcha green tea is mighty fine. Door County loose leaf green tea is very good in Sencha and Serene. My favorite drink from Kona Grill would be the jasmine green tea. Don't drink too much, just the right amount! Hearts and smiles.

Uma linda flor
Que um dia desabrochou
Hoje cresceu
E uma rosa virou.

Com sua vida
Ela irradiou o mundo
Pois diferente das outras
Era destemida

Mostrou que era diferente
Mas que era igual a todos
Apesar das rosas serem quase iguais
Essa é única

Seu perfume é incondicional
Suas pétalas, suaves como a brisa
Mas ao mesmo tempo é uma guerreira
De toda a vida

Feliz Aniversários Emma! Felicidades

*(A beautiful flower
That once flourished
Today increased
And a rose turned.*

*With his life
She beamed the world
For different from other
Was fearless*

*Showed that it was different
But that was equal to all
Although roses are almost equal
This is only*

*Its scent is unconditional
Its petals, soft as the breeze
But at the same time is a warrior
Of all life*

Happy Birthday Emma! Felicidades)

Dear Emma,

beauty begins the moment you decide to be yourself. I don ’t know you in real life but I think you show yourself really naturally in interviews and other conversations. You ARE yourself. And please stay yourself :)

Thank you for being a part of “Harry Potter”. The story is really great, I love it!
And thank you for being an example to
me. :D

Love and have a wonderful day!

Congrats on everything you did until now. You are a role model for many of us. I hope you enjoyed your time on our country, it was an honor having you here and I'd be amazing if you came back someday. I sincerely wish you the best because you deserve it. Keep that huge heart you've got, always Happy Birthday, I wish you all the happiness on this world because that's is the less you deserve.

It has been said that true beauty is a thing of the inner world-the purview of the soul. It has been such a privilege over the years to watch you grow from sweet little girl to a beautiful woman. It has been a true wonder to see that your beauty is far more than skin deep, extending to the causes you have powerfully espoused and highlighted. Your talents are manifested variously from those displayed within your profession as actress through to those demonstrated in art, design- doubtless many others. It cannot be other than clearly and thoroughly established that you are a true Renaissance woman.

Blessings and huge, huge respects to you.
Happy Birthday!!!

Hi, Emma.

I'm Elvira, a Spanish fan of you.

OMG, I'm really excited because I never write you a message. I'm not sure I'm writing well that. Well, don't care.

I want to tell you, you are all who I'll want. My example to be in my life. I hope to be like you a little. I followed you along time ago. Your role in the Harry Potter films is my favourite since I watch that. I think your birthday is a great opportunity for telling you it.

So, HAPPY BIRTHDAY EMMA. I hope you a good day and all your projects come true.

I wish to see you in 'Beauty and the Beast'. Really.

Love, Elvira.

PD: Can you write me to this mail (elviraandres2@hotmail.com)? Thank you. (Sorry if I upset you with that)

You are like moon and stars far away from the earth of million years, and now you are here on earth like the sunbeams that play on the ocean, In tremulous touches of light with kindness with love that are shined the earth. In my mind want to say "lovely birthday and lovely day to Emma Watson"

Happy Birthday to you, Emma Watson!
Tuan Le, Viet Nam

Well, Emma, i'm not an expert in sending greetings, and I know you're going to read this message. So, besides HAPPY BIRTHDAY and HAVE AN AWESOME DAY, what I want to tell you the most is THANK YOU.

Since I found out that you were coming to Argentina, I couldn't stop imagining what would be like to meet you. I would dream about you and there were many times where I couldn't sleep at all. The same day I finished High School (after celebrating a little bit with my friends), I didn't doubt a second and I went to look out for you around the city.

I walked like never before in my life, I travelled around the whole city and, during those 15 days you stayed, I spent more time outside the shooting sets than in my own house. I made a lot of friends and I went through good and bad times during all this adventure, but, now that I look back, the only thing I can say is: it was totally worthwhile.

All the effort I had to make and all the hours I spent waiting for you cannot even compare with the experience you made me live. You've been my Platonic Love practically for my entire life. I've been dreaming of meeting you since my childhood. However, having you in front of me, being able to touch your hand, talk to you and hear you laughing, with that beautiful British accent you have, are things that I wouldn't have imagine I'd live in a million years.

It all started on Friday Dec. 5th, when I got out from school after sitting for my last exam, and I went to San Telmo fully determined to find the movie set, and after walking for almost an hour, I finally found it. I spent all day in the middle of the crowd and we could only see you 50 meters away, but we formed a small group of friends with the only goal of meeting you.

The next day we spent hours and hours under the rain and we couldn't see you. We were just about to lose any hope he had remaining, when we decided to write a letter and handle it to a cop so he could get it to you. We didn't really believe that something could happen, but, to surprise us all, we saw Denise coming out and she gave us some autographed pictures with our names.

It was unbelievable. Knowing that you, with your own handwriting, wrote my name, caused me more joy than anything in this world. From that moment on, we decided that we wouldn't stop until we finally saw you close, no matter the cost.

We wouldn't have to wait for so long, because on Tuesday Dec. 9, you made us live a magical moment. That day, as the first letter worked perfectly, we decided to write another one to see if it'd bear fruit, and so it was. One of the producers came to tell us that you actually read that letter and you were smiling and laughing while doing it, and we couldn't be more excited.

We had never felt as close to you as in that moment, and even more when we saw Denise coming out from a van to take stuff for you to sign. I decided to give you my last Exam Paper of High School (in which you wrote "Congratulations, Juan!"). When she gave it back to me, I couldn't help crying.

But the most important moment came and hour later. Denise, Charlotte and Louise came to us and they said that... We were going to see you! I was on the brink of a heart attack. When you came out to talk to us, I couldn't believe it, my jaw dropped. You're just as gorgeous I imagined you. You're as beautiful in person as I always saw you in pictures and interviews. Your freckles and your smile left me astonished. I looked at you for

So Emma, besides congratulating you and wishing you the best on this special day, I want to thank you very much for making me live the best day I could've ever dreamt of. I hope that life will smile at me again and your paths will cross again sometime.

Happy Birthday Emma/Feliz cumpleaños Emma

Thank you for everything! / ¡Gracias por todo!

Juan Ignacio Chudnovsky – Argentina - @JuanIChudnovsky

like 30 seconds (although it seemed like an eternity) without making any gesture. I still don't believe that I also held your hand. That little and delicate hand you have it looks like made out of porcelain.

Many of my friends were silent, but, when you started speaking, I felt that I had to talk to you, make you laugh, listen to that tiny laughter that always made me blush and blew my mind when I'd hear it on videos. Everything was magical. You answered our questions, you looked at every one of us, and you even wanted to take a picture to remember the moment! That humbleness you showed when you made us get inside the set to have a nice memory of us keeps surprising me even nowadays.

Everything that came after that the following days cannot even compare with that moment we lived with you. We almost got used to see you, to talk to Louise, Denise and Charlotte. In a way, we were making up to the idea that you were going to stay in Argentina forever, and then, when you left the country, I felt as empty as I never did before. However, when I look back, I cannot feel more proud of all the effort I put in this and everything me and my friends achieved thanks to that.

Emma, I am a biiiigbigbigbig fan of yours, and I really appreciate the work you do for HeForShe. I am pretty sure that you know how much people appreciate this, but I had to tell that, just to be clear. :)

Anyways, the point of this message is that Happy Birthday!!! ♥♥♥♥♥♥

Remember that we all love you, you are such a great rolemodel for me, and I can only imagine that you are the same for millions of girls in this world. Keep up the important and respected work.

ONCE MORE: HAPPY BIRTHDAY EM!! WE LOVE YOU FROM THE BOTTOM OF OUR HEARTS! ♥

A very Happie Birthdae to the most beautiful woman I have ever seen!

I had participated in the live talk for the gender equality, and I am using this platform to ask you the question which you didn't reply. Hope this message reaches you!

Is reservations for women a solution to encourage them to participate and perform actively in any field?

This is so because in India, we have reservations for the backward class, and without this reservations it is difficult for them to lead a prosperous life as they don't have access to good education, facilities and basic needs. Can this be the solution for a country where women are given less importance and facilities than they actually deserve? If no, then what can possibly be the solution for this, as some sort of improvement of women participation is needed to encourage other women, and that can be done by the reservation systems!

Happy birthday! My name is Caitlin and I'm 10. I am a very big fan of you and the rest of the Harry Potter cast but that is not the only thing I admire you for. I also admire you for your work in Noah. If I had not been introduced to the Harry Potter series by my friend Nick (short for Nickolas) I would not have been sending this to you. I also admire you for giving speeches for woman and girl rights. I have read all of the Harry Potter books and have watched all the movies. I'm so sad there are no more books to continue with! Now my dream is the meet the Harry Potter cast (which might sound crazy) but I really only have one true friend and people bully me in school (I'm in 4th grade) and I would like something to talk about besides "ooh I read 15 chapter books last night!" (I LOVE to read!!!) I just want to be cooler and not the nerd who only reads in her free time. I have a crush on Daniel, Rupert, and Tom! they're so cute! I live in North Port Florida and I have a golden retriever. I'm a girl scout. Well, happy birthday again!

Happy 25th Birthday Emma!!! You've been such an inspiration to me. You're gorgeous and stunning and yet you're such an intelligent young woman. That speech you have a few months ago really touched me. The fight for women's rights is very close to my heart and the fact that my favorite actress is leading this fight makes me so happy. Your speeches have brought me to tears. I can't thank you enough for doing this. Thank you Emma!! I hope this year is amazing! Happy birthday Emma!!!

Emma, I think that you are one of the most inspiring young women of our generation. I grew up with you being the best Hermione I could have ever asked for. Thank you for taking Jo's character and making her as true to the book as any fan could have wanted. Thank you for showing young women in modern day society that you don't have to be scandalous to be famous. You are so inspirational and one of the biggest role models I could ask for. I support your He for She movement fully, and thank you for showing the world that feminism is important. Thank you for everything. Have an amazing birthday!

Well, first I want to say two things: This is a big text, and my english sucks :P

Emma, I hope you read this (I know that is not going to happen), because I want you to know that I exist.

I know that you receive this type of posts like everyday, but I want to (try to) make a difference. I just want to try to show you how important you are for me. And not just for me, but for other millions out there! You are my idol, my inspiration. I just love you so much. You can't imagine how important you are for me. Without you there's no me. I'm not a psycho fan, (don't worry) but I really really love you. You're all what matters to me. You are such a role model; everything you do, every single thing you do is just perfect. You are an example to follow. I am so proud to see what little Hermione Granger is today. What you, not as Hermione, but as Emma, what you became.

You are my QUEEN.

Today is your birthday, and of course I can't just say Happy birthday, that would be too rude. You deserve more, much more.

I just can't describe in words what I feel for you. You are a big part of my heart. You don't even know who I am, who are we. But we know you! XD

You are my angel, you are everything. You are soooo important for me. I just... don't really know what to write.

I can't express my feelings in words. You are beautiful, awesome, amazing, wonderful, I have no words. You are just perfect.

Please never stop being who you are, because you leave us proud. You were like, the best actress in the world, my complete idol, my model to follow, and then...

He for She. You said that you were a feminist, and made that beautiful and inspiring speech. Wow, can you just please stop being perfect, just for one day!?!? Great work, now I can say, I'm a feminist. But well, we are not here to talk about this (amazing) campaign.

We are here to talk about the most perfect human being on earth! Jennifer Lawrence! Hahaha just kidding (but she's perfect too :3)

Well, I will finish this big big text, I really don't know what more to write! YOU ARE PERFECT, MY IDOL, EVERYTHING!

Ok, now I can finish. Happy happy birthday! You deserve it! I had to do this text. I know you will not read it, but I hope someone will.

But, if no one read this, this text will not be in vain. ;)

Love love love you until the very end. Always! <3 <3 <3

Never stop being my Queen x.x

Happy Birthday Emma! You are the best and I just want to wish you a happy birthday! You are a true actress and you can act out any role no matter what it is and I just think you are absolutely wonderful! In the Harry Potter movies, you made me feel like I was actually there at Hogwarts. In Ballet Shoes, you were yourself: a brilliant magical actress. In Noah, you truly were the part. I could tell whatever role you were playing without actually knowing it because of your amazing reactions. I really hope your birthday is special for a special actress like you! Happy birthday again and I can't wait to see you in 2016 Beauty and the Beast:)

Hi Emma,

I am the guy whom you unfollowed on Twitter months ago. Yet, me and all the people around me were so excited when you followed me. We are still not sure if you did it on purpose or it was an accident but still we were so happy. After all those beautiful things, it was devastating when you unfollowed. The main point of this message is actually to wish you a happy birthday but I couldn't stop myself saying those. As we all know, you're going to come to Ankara in May for Flying Broom International Women's Film Festival. The only thing I wish is to see you just for a minute when you come. I have written too much that probably you wonder who I am. Let me introduce myself. My name is Doga and this is my Twitter account: www.twitter.com/dogabas

Let's get back to the main point. I wish you a very happy birthday with the all sincere feelings I have. As your fans in Turkey, we want you to know that we love you so much. And I can't stop myself saying that I am one of your biggest fans in Turkey.

I also would like to add that, since it is my birthday in April 14th, you might want to make a surprise to me. :)

I have been waiting for this moment to come for so long, so, if I wrote too much, sorry about that. But thank you for all.

We love you so much.

Doga, Turkey

I'm a fan of his since 2007. This year I'm turn 21! My only icon. She impressed with all my life. The visionary, the acting with the decision. We grew up together in so Happy Birthday Emma :) <3

Happy birthday, lovely Emma!! Apparently this is the 10th year we're doing this, pretty amazing, huh? duuude, time flies.... Anyway, I always feel like I'm talking to/about an old friend whenever I think of you (which I realize it's still weird but whatever), I really do wish you the very best, happiness, health and success! Have the best one yet, it's the quarter of a century after all!!

Lots of love, always
Sabrina, Morocco

Happy Birthday Emma!!!! How does it feel to be a quarter of a century old?

It's amazing how far you have come in the first quarter of your life. In fact on your last birthday you were still counting down the days to your graduation from Brown. This year you'll be celebrating your 25th as the Goodwill Ambassador for UN Women fighting for gender equality. Goes to show how much can happen within a year. :) Here's to hoping that HeForShe has an even better 2015 and that things will improve big time within the next 25 years. Happy 25th Birthday Emma.

Love, Kevin

Emma, we want to wish you a happy Birthday and we hope you have a wonderful day. From Argentina, We want to send you our best wishes and congratulations on this special day. And also, above all things, say thank you for made us feel the best day of our life during your stay in our country.

It was on December 9th, 2014. You were in Buenos Aires filming "Colonia" and, as the loyal fans we are, we were outside the set waiting for you come out and greet us.

Our expectation of seeing you closely weren't so high, as we had already gone to see you filming in other locations. All the producers were saying it was impossible to see you. Nevertheless, we stayed there, like soldiers.

We spent hours and hours under the sun and even we though that we could only see you at distance, it was enough for us, even more when we saw you waving to us from the balcony. We continued waiting there, next to the fence, until we saw a car approaching from which Denise, that Angel God sent from heaven, came out and told us: "Give me whatever you want Emma to sign, I'll be back soon." We couldn't contain the joy. At least we knew that you noticed we were there, waiting for you, and we were happy about that. If we stayed there before, after that we decided not to move until the filming was over, regardless of the time it took. However, shortly after that we realized staying all day was not going to be necessary. After an hour, Denise came back: Firstly, to give us back all things we gave to her, signed, and secondly, to turn our worlds upside down, when she told us: "Emma will come out to greet you". We were going to see our idol.

We saw you coming over and we couldn't believe it. You took a break at the middle of filming just for us. We saw you, we talked to you, and you hold our hands. We had you in front of us when our entire lives we could only see you in movies. You answered all our questions and we were so comfortable in the talk that you looked like you were enjoying the conversation so much like we were, and you didn't want to finish it. We could see how friendly, lovely, nice and humble you really are.

When you were gone, we thought we were on top of the world. Nothing could overcome that experience, until after crying and embrace between each other; someone came to tell us you wanted to take a picture with us. It looked like a dream which we didn't want to wake up from. We got inside, posed for the photo and we left, all without being able to wipe the smiles off our faces.

Everything on that day was PERFECT.

When we were about to leave, together we agreed everything we've just lived couldn't end there. That's why we made 'WeForShe', this fans club in which we could share the experience of meeting you, and this way, somehow our connection with you is never going to end. We felt we had to do this to show you our gratitude for all you did. Thanks to you we met each other, we became friends, and we shared a thousand of memories we will have in our memory the rest of our lives.

Not even all the gifts we gave you can compensate the moment you made us to live. You were working and, however, you took a break just to talk to us. Thank you for fulfilling our dreams of meeting you, for talking to us, for holding our hands and especially for the best Christmas present EVER: That beautiful picture you posted with those lovely words you wrote for us. We will never forget it. You changed our lives.

THANK YOU FOR EVERYTHING.

WE LOVE YOU!

Dear Emma!

Always charming, intelligent, strong-willed, and very encouraging for other young women and girls. You are amazing. When the HeForShe website crashed after your inspiring speech back in September, I was really stunned. I mean, the Watsonnation is really huge, but it is still really impressing. I assume speaking in front of the UN was a really big issue for you. Your Q&A a few weeks ago was a perfect day for me, because I could hear your voice again. What I really like about you is that you think about the issues before you say something about them.

And you know of levels of the population lot of other people haven't even heard of before.

The Watsonnation grew throughout the years and you can rely on us. You were there in our childhood when nobody else was there for us. Not in person, but always reachable at the big screen. You are down to earth and I really fancy that. For me, you are like a big sister, which is living abroad.

We all grew up with you literally and now you are 25! You are a grown-up person who sticks to its plans and you are so open-minded and friendly and support your fans if necessary and possibly. Live your life as you wish, because you are important and you have to care for yourself.

Nobody shall tell you how to live because it is your life and you have to live your life.

What I wanted to write is that I am fond of you, I look up to you and I really want, that you can enjoy your 25th birthday with the people you care most. Stick to them, because you said you have true friends and true friends never really leave you.

Your fan,
Valerie

You're and still one of the best memories of my life through being there as a childhood crush and still ...wish you a happy birthday and a great year.

Dear Emma,

Dear Emma,

I wish you the best 25th Birthday ... From the moment I watched the first movie of Harry Potter- I knew you'd be a beautiful person no matter what and I haven't been disappointed I was always the one who said at the time "Hermione she is beautiful and smart" I admired that and still do and now knowing you portrayed Hermione the way you did and held your own as a real person who we know as Emma Watson... Keep on Keeping on!

HAPPY BIRTHDAY EMMA!

You have already notice that I love animations!

I believe that this industry role is essential for the moral formation of the person.

In this animations, like others, we witness that the woman has been highlighted.

Each one with a outstanding personality, each one with your conflict, internal and external.

I hope I could inspire the children one day, like this animations have inspired me until these days for their stories.

And today I wish you a happy birthday and that you continue being our inspiration!

HAPPY BIRTHDAY DEAR EMMA!

My name is Silja Lehtinen. I`m eleven years old. I live Rauma - called town in Finland. My birthday is 14.7 in July. I`m very BIG Harry Potter fan and Hermione Granger is my favourite character. You are very beautiful and very good actress. You are my favourite actress in the world. It would be really great if I could meet you someday.

I`ve always wanted to meet you! Harry Potter movies are my favourite movie, and all are really good, but you and Daniel Radcliffe are the best.

It would also be nice if you could ever come to visit Finland. I`ve got little sister and she loves Harry Potter movies Dobby the house elf. My hobbies are ballet and I like it. I would like to see the movie Ballet Shoes.

But the really good twenty-five-year birthday and good spring for you! Hope to see some day!

With love, Silja, your biggest fan

Dear Emma,

Today is your birthday and because of that I want to write you a little message. My name is Mara Alexandra and I come from Germany.

We, your fans celebrate your birthday for so many years now. 10 years ago, it was the first time that we make birthday messages and poems and pictures for you.

And every year I can see how many people from all over the world send a birthday message to you and that is it what makes me proud. Proud that I can say that I am a part of these incredible People.

I am proud that I get the chance and got it to see you. I know not personally but there on the fanpage and the media.

And I can understand that sometimes it must be hard for you, all these people around you and all these press and so on.

But I want to tell you that we are there for you and that we support you and stay on your side, because you are an idol for us. An idol who has the strength to change us.

At this Moment I want to say that "idol" is not the perfect word for that, what you are, or what you mean to us, what you mean to me. I don't know a word to describe it.

All I know is that I am so thankful that you are there. And I want to say "Happy Birthday Emma".

I say Happy Birthday to a person who impresses the people, to a person, who has so much strength and brave and trust and love and who stands with both stumps firmly in life.

Sorry for my English I hope you understand what I want to say.

I mean that I believe that you have found your place in the world and that you remain true to yourself.

When I saw your speech in September I looked at the screen and was impressed and without words and I saw you and I had this feeling of pride. I wanted to show it my family because I wanted to share it, to show what unbelievable person you are.

I haven't got so much self-confidence. But when I see you and what you are doing to change something I have a feeling of safety and I want to change something, too.

I don't really have a story about gender inequality but I know that there are so many things in the world we have to change. Especially in the issues women's right, children right and environmental issues and protection of animals.

Thank you for everything. You make us proud every year.

I wish you a wonderful birthday. A birthday for the wonderful woman, who you are.

Because you deserve it, the love and respect and trust and faith or believe in you which I hope we can give it to you.

I have to stop my message now, because I write and write and write and it would be longer and longer and there are so many people who want to say happy birthday.

I hope that you like my video, this is my little present for you.

Thank you.
Happy Birthday.
I love you.

Yours Mara Alexandra

You are my dream in my sleep;
You are the vision of my eye;
You are the smile of my lips;
You are the beat of my heart;
You are an angel in my prayers;
And you are the light of my life.
Happy Birthday, my darling, my love ,

14 years long Life with Em by AL
alsafayat@gmail.com

Dear Em (Emma Watson)

Hiiii.

My name's AL from Bangladesh. In some points life is full of unpredicted and mysterious and in this very little life, we experience so many unexpected events and feelings as well. Some of those feelings we define as love. The eternal word love is the most powerful, responsible word in earth. With its power ordinary people can do extraordinary things.

I don't exactly remember the day or month but it was year 2001. I wasn't young enough to know anything about love. That very first moment I saw you in Harry Potter 1, and my eyes just stuck on the screen. I felt every possible feeling about being fallen of love. Still remember that moment undoubtedly. But it wasn't just love. There was more than it that I couldn't define yet.

From that moment till now and way forward you became a great part of my life. It's like every moment; I'm growing up with you. I've been watching you since, the way you were aging and forgetting that I'm aging too. Because I never slipped my eyes from you and the very feeling is still fresh as the day it poured.

I never did any crazy things for you like others do for a celebrity. It's just my friends and family who know what I'm capable of doing unreasonable things because of you. There's one other person who knows it more than anyone. My one dearest GF from Italy suffered much of pain because of jealousy for my unconditional feeling about you. The most wonderful thing she did, was giving me the update of you, such as the day you cut your hair, the day you came to my country. She even watched the premier of Harry Potter 7 just to make me happy.

Every year on your birthday I cut a birthday cake, collect every single recent picture I find from anywhere. So far, till now I've 10,674 files of your photos, data, videos and all movies. The happiest day of my life becomes when you happen to come in my dreams. From August, 11 till now I saw you 19 times in my dream. I wrote all the details of those dreams.

When I heard about your Boyfriend? It surprised me, because I was never jealous. It made me so much happy to see you happy, smiling around them. That's all matters to me. I never dreamed to have you as mine. Because I already got you through the way I want to. I can sense of your every breath. You are the most incredible person with great personality in the world comparatively like other girls at your age and position. I admire your compassion, love for others, fashion, style, beauty and so many wonderful things you carry with you.

I just wish that one day in this life or next, I'll see you in real with my eyes and possibly say you just a Hi if I can manage not to knock out for my sense. Just live !!!

Emma, in your quarter-century on this earth, you've achieved infinitely more than I have in more than twice that time. You've grown as an actress and an artist, but you've also put the fame you've garnered to work to make the world a better place. Again and again, you speak to what's best in all of us, from calling on men to support women with HeForShe to delivering hot meals to storm-bound seniors in the wake of a catastrophic superstorm.

At my age, I've lately been losing childhood heroes at an alarming rate. It's very good to know I now have a heroine, who will go on being amazing long after I'm gone.

Thank you very much, Emma, and have the happiest birthday ever!

Jonathan

Happy birthday Emma, you're an incredible actress and also an inspirational person. You're my role model. I hope someday to meet you. I wish you success in everything you'll do

Dear Emma,

You are a huge inspiration to me, and I want to thank you for giving me courage to stand up for myself and call out all of the bull crap I see. I want to thank you for teaching me that not everyone is perfect, including myself, and that there is no need to rise to society's exceptions. You are an amazing human being and are so talented at what you do. I hope that you have the most amazing birthday!

Hi Emma, I am a huge fan of yours. I've been in love with you since second grade. I think you are a fantastic actress and feminist, you're beautiful.
Lots of Love

Adarsh, India

This may be a bit of an unusual happy birthday wish, but I truly do wish you well. To be honest, I think you're a great actress, but I wouldn't say I'm a fan--I'm 31 years old and a father of 4, so I'm not much a fan of anything but spending time with my wife and children these days. What I wanted to tell you, though, is how very much I admire your determination to finish your education. Even more, I'd like to tell you how truly refreshing it is to see such a beautiful, famous, intelligent young woman succeed in show business without having to compromise her commitment to morality. Pornography is such a destructive force against pure love and family relationships and so many men and women in show business are giving into it. It must be hard for you, as I'm sure you see how many women give into the enticement of greater fame and glory. For your sake and hopefully for your fans' sake, never give in. You will be blessed with true love and you'll never regret it. I very sincerely wish you a happy birthday and another year of showing forth courage to stand for what you believe in.

Yours truly,
A loving husband and father

It's not like something that can be said or explain. It's all about feeling with your heart. May the God bless you.

Dear Emma!

My name is Veronica. Today is your birthday, so I wish you every happiness on your special day. Many happy returns! May all your wishes come true. May your big day be as special as you are. May your birthday and every day be filled with the warmth of sunshine, the happiness of smiles, the sounds of laughter, the feeling of love and the sharing of good cheer. Have a wonderful day, get many nice presents and a lot of fun! A friend is someone who stands by your side when you are in trouble and broken inside. A friend is someone who treats you with all the best and shines your day, when you are. Happy birthday my friend! Oh, Emma, I forget... You do not know me, but I know you. This is sad. Well, you are another year older and you haven't changed a bit. That's great because you are perfect just the way you are. Enjoy this year and use it as a launchpad for your future! I hope it is as fantastic as you are, you deserve the best and nothing less. You are very beautiful and wonderful. I from Poland, and my english is not good. Poland believe that you visit us sometime. You are my authority, Emma. I try to support you at every step. Thanks to you, I have learned: not to give up! I owe you a lot. Health, happiness, prosperity, more success. Thank you for everything! It is awesome feeling, to have such an idol like you!

Hey Emma,

My name is Daniela Arévalo, I'm 16 years old and I'm from Mexico.

First of all happy birthday. I want to tell you that I'm your number 1 fan, you may hear that from everyone, but well, I consider myself that. I just love everything about you and I admire you like you have no idea, everything you do is so inspiring. You are one of the few famous people that actually do something with their lives besides just acting and earning lots of money, you have a career, you work for the UN, which is actually something I would like to do, I also want to go to Brown or Oxford as second and third options. You have no idea how much I want to meet you and just talk about stuff from the UN and problematics involving it. I actually do Model United Nations debates, I've been to San Antonio in US debating, I've been in debates in my school and in my country and 2 weeks ago I was in a debate organised by Harvard, so I'm really into things of the UN which is why I want to work there someday. I also want to act and do some modeling, like you did. So as you can see, I really want to be like you someday in the future, that's all I can say right now. And if one day we meet, I would be thrilled (If I don't faint first) to have a chat with you. Have a nice birthday, my best wishes.

Lots of love, XX.
Danielle
