Hello Emma, happy birthday!

You are a wonderful human being and a very talented actress. You are a role model for me. I was born in 1991, a year after you and I am a Potterhead. Like many people, I've seen you grow up and I'm immensely proud of you. Because of your commitment to the rights of women, you are a ray of sunshine in the world. Don't change, stay yourself. Happy birthday again!

Lorine Biancarelli, France

1. Feminism is not about man hate, it's really not.
2. If you believe in equality, you are a feminist.

I hope you can do something what you want in future. Never be affected, just follow your own mind.

Happy birthday, Emma. You are my goddess.

Have a very Happy Birthday! Enjoy!

I'm HeeRim from South Korea, 19 years old. You've always been my role model since I was 9.

You're not just an actress but you are working so hard for gender equality in heforshe. I admire you a lot and I'll always support you. I'm very proud that I'm fan of Emma Watson, who is really perfect in every aspect.

Recently, I cried after watching Beauty and the Beast cause the film was incredible! And you were beautiful at the screen as you've always been.

I hope you to have great day cause it's your birthday, your day!

Love, HeeRim

Dear Emma Watson,

HAPPY BIRTHDAY! I really love all your work and think that you are a great person. I've watched all the Harry Potter films and thought they were amazing (of course). I have yet to see Beauty and the Beast, but I plan to see it soon. All my friends have said it was terrific! Even though I haven't seen Beauty and the Beast, I wanted to make a picture for you, so I looked online and found a picture of you as Belle in the yellow dress. I included it in this email. I hope you like it.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY!!!!!!!

Love,
Theodora

Hi dear Emma .

You're my biggest hero in art and fashion .
And specially in cinema, Your absence makes everyone sad in theatre, but I'm happy that these days you're so busy about beauty and the beast.

And I'm also happy about the Circle with Tom Hanks that it shows your progress in this field.

I wish you the biggest improvements in your lovely life.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY EMMA!!! Gosh! You're already 27 it feels like just yesterday you gave your audition for Harry Potter! I SAW BEAUTY AND THE BEAST! What an AMAZING MOVIE!!!! Emma I've always thought that when I meet you I'll say this,
I'll say that but when I'm actually writing this I'm struggling for words! I think the day I meet you will be the day my life will be true it will be the day when I realise my purpose on Earth! Even though you don't know me and live with me, I feel like you are EXTREMELY close to me. In my moments of doubt I have asked myself what would Emma do?! I see you as an inspiration and each day I strive to be a good person like you! But I know no one can be like you, because you're THE BEST PERSON EVER BORN ON EARTH! You are my life and I love you a lot! KEEP UP THE GOOD WORK AND KEEP SMILING!!

HAPPY BIRTHDAY ONCE AGAIN!!

Aakriti Kandhari, India

DON'T QUIT

"When things go wrong,
As they sometimes will,
When the road seems all uphill,
When funds are low
And the debts are high,
And you want to smile.
But you have to sigh,
When care is pressing you down a bit,
Rest if you must but don't you quit.
Life is queer with its twists and turns,
As every one of us sometimes learns,
And many a failure turns about,
When you might have won
Had you stuck it out,
Don't give up,
Although the pace seems slow,
You may succeed with another blow.
Success is failure turned inside out,
The silver tint of the clouds of doubt,
You never can tell how close you are,
It may be near when it seems so far,
So stick to the fight,
When you're hardest hit,
When things seem worst,
You must not quit."

Today is a new beginning,
A new page in your life,
A clean slate to begin a new,
Another chance to get it right.
Today is your birthday,
A new chapter for a new age,
A new story to live by,
A chance to turn the page.

Suyog

Have a wonderful birthday. I wish your every day to be filled with lots of love, laughter, happiness and the warmth of sunshine. May your coming year surprise you with the happiness of smiles, the feeling of love and so on. I hope my emma will find plenty of sweet memories to cherish forever.

And I want to express my perception that I am big big big fan of yours.

" you are my expectation,
you are my dream
you are my inspiration"

so, I can always give up all things for you and my aim in life is to see only one times because I want to be witness of your endless beauty and inspiration of your personality.

I never fail to attain success from my aim because a man said

"If you fail,you can not give up because fail means "First Attempt In Learning"

Dear Miss Watson,

A very happy birthday to you! I send my congratulations on your latest movie role in Beauty and the Beast, as well as the success of your phenomenal Goodreads book club, Our Shared Shelf. To follow your footsteps with regards to feminism, I will soon be sharing the story of what the equal rights movement means to me. You have continued to inspire me since your 2014 U.N. speech, and now I too hope to inspire others. You have my fullest respect and support for the work you have done, both in cinema and in the feminist movement!

I hope you have a great birthday, and wish you the best!

Warm regards,

Jayce

Dear Emma,

This letter went longer than I had expected, I hope you get to see this , but even if you don't, I'll understand. I just want to wish you a happy birthday, and let you know how much I appreciate all the changes you have made in my life. You are one of the few people, who have got the influence and power (my apologies, this may be a bad choice of word, but I can't think of a better fitting one for now), and have chosen to do so much good with it! Thank you for everything you have done!

Just like you have mentioned yourself in many interviews, playing one iconic role in one movie(series) is a once of a life time experience, and two, is just phenomenal!

When I was younger, and lost, you, Dan, Rupert and the books made me less afraid of darkness in the nights, the darkness from outside, and within.

And now I'm older, lost in my life again, seeing you playing Belle in the Beauty And The Beast movie was that one thing I just needed in my life. Although I had known that you were going to play in the movie a couple of years ago, I was still so very touchingly and delightfully surprised when I saw it in the theater a week ago! It was more than I had expected! It was a lot deeper, brighter, alive(of course) and COMPLETE! It was the PERFECT translation of that story. It brought back so much childhood memories of mine, and funny enough I feel like this is actually the version I remember of!

And the one thing that I picked up again because of the movie, was the books!

I have recently just changed my job, my last one was with Disney for 5 years, we have Disney English in Shanghai, I worked hard, and got to experience many incredible opportunities, did things which no one including myself thought was possible, but it was truly demanding, and I reached to a bottle neck in my career. My new job is a teacher in an international school, and it is a lot less demanding physically and emotionally, but with all this extra time I have now, I realize I don't know what to do with it anymore, I constantly feel like I'm wasting my life. Things I want to do, I either don't have the money for, or just simply do not know how to start. I realize I've been used to living biggish, creating dreams for myself and others for too long, and now I'm not drained by work all the time, I'm back on the ground, but I feel I've lost my ground instead. I realize I need to feel like I'm always getting better, doing something with my life, but I don't see a way of doing that anymore.

Books, what a simple way to do all that! I guess I have gotten too used to the convenience of smart phone, laptop with internet and videos for my leisure life, book for the longest time, have only been used for not so fun stuff, they have only been used as means to an end instead to enjoy as a journey, I have almost forgotten the joy and freedom of reading before I go to sleep, because sometimes I scare myself in the dark, or under the duvet after the light was turned off by my parents but I just couldn't wait to see what happens next, or first thing to do after I wake up in quiet early mornings before my parents woke up and "allow" me to get out of my bed...

All those feelings are coming back to my memory, and I'm so grateful that I got to see this movie at this point of my life, I knew I needed a way to pick myself up, and the movie and you reminded me of the way that I have always had with me. :)

And of course your "heforshe" project, leaving books in the underground (Sorry I don't know the name of the project), they are changing the world in an unbelievable way!

About 3 years ago in March 2014 when I was about to turn 26, and about a year ago at the end of 2015, shortly after I turned 27, I'd like to believe I also did something, that was a first in the company, and had made some differences for people. Not as huge as you of course, but they were things I am proud of, I think I just need to be reminded about those things, and continue to do things that I believe in and to make this world a better place to my best ability.

This letter is really going for too long, and I will stop now. If you've finished reading this, I want to thank you again for your time. If not, that's ok. I just hope you know one way or another, that you've been an inspiration in my life, and you can feel my appreciation. :)

Happy birthday, Emma!

Best wishes,
Faith faithcao@live.cn in Shanghai

I can't go back into my childhood.

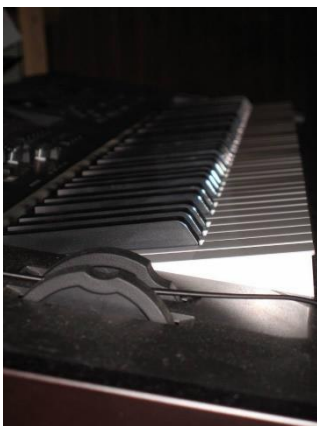

Easy to remember, harder to move on.

Knowing the heroes of my childhood are gone?

Bonjour Mademoiselle Watson,

Hi Emma,

The quotes above captures well the changes I encompassed in the past couple of years. Fortunately stories like Beauty and the Beast, whether on stage, on the big or smaller screen or just the music helps me return and relive happy and sad memories. These have also many similarities with Beauty and the Beast. Probably why I like it so much!

I'm usually not the kind of person to write fanmail, often I get the chance, after attending stage musicals, to see and congratulate the cast, musicians and crew myself. This time, considering the GRAND music, the moving in-depth stories (tale of Belle, the Beast/prince and the castle's inhabitants), the touching lyrics and dialogues and the stunning cast (to name but a few), I couldn't resist the temptation congratulating you (please pass it on to the cast and crew after this masterpiece!). I'm a pianist myself and it's wonderful to play Mr. Menken's music. Hearing reverberate your singing whether on cd or inside my head, makes it even more pleasant. Therefore I can't be but grateful, thanks!

I also want to express my deepest respect for the work that you do on behalf of the Women's Rights as UN Ambassador! I try to follow it via your facebook-page. Those inspiring women you interview, the way you give them a world stage sharing their story inspires me in my work for the environmental issues which I try to solve in Brussels (Belgium), and who knows one day maybe also on a larger scale...

"I want so much more than they've got planned..."

Keep the good work going!

I would have sent you a box of chocolates, but for practical reasons I opted for a musical gift (you'll probably recognize some of the tunes, I hope) (and ate the chocolates myself ;-)).

Congratulations with your 27th Birthday!

I wish you good health and many happy returns.

Dear Emma Watson,

My name is Gogo. I am 13 years old and I am a fan of you. I live in China and I'm in 7th grade. I know this wouldn't be a birthday project, but I want to take this opportunity to talk to you about myself.

I went to the UK (city of Manchester) for one and a half years and the US (state of Wisconsin) for two years. I made lots of friends there, and I contact them every weekend. I learned to speak English with them, and so my English improved.

I go to school in Wuhan, a place in central China. The school here is very different from the schools in the UK and the US. We have subjects like English, math, Chinese and politics, but we have other subjects like psychology, biology, computer technology, geography, history, P.E., and art. I especially like computer technology, because we get to use the computers. Our teacher lets us have our free time on the internet after we finish our task. The first thing I do when I am on the internet, is to research about you, because I want to get to know you more. We take Mid-term exams and the End-of-term exams every year, and the subjects that are testing are English, math, Chinese and politics, the four main subjects. As you can see, the school here is very fun.

In China, all grade splits into two semesters, with winter holidays separating them. After the second semester, we have summer holidays. In China, there are lots of holidays, like the Tomb-sweeping holiday (which was passed two weeks ago), the Lantern festival, the Dragon Boat festival, etc, but we don't have Christmas or Easter holidays like in the UK and the US.

Everyone in the US always talked about Harry Potter books and movies, especially about you. So I started reading Harry Potter books since I got back, and I watch them once I finished a book. I thought that the movies were so well made, even though it's over two hours. I especially liked Hermione Granger among all the characters in the movies. She was VERY beautiful and smart, and you acted the character out so well.

I watched Colonia, Noah, and The Perks of Being a Wallflower after I finished watching the Harry Potter movies. They were, as the Harry Potter movies, well made, and I love them so much. You acted as the characters should be, and I was so into it that I couldn't sleep at night, because of all the questions I wanted to ask you. Can you answer them for me in my next emails to you?

My family watched Beauty and the Beast, which was, as I thought, the best movie of all, we all thought you were so beautiful in the movie. The wonderful music was constantly stuck in my head. I wanted to listen to it over and over again!

I heard that a new movie is coming up--The Circle, and I am planning on to watch it with my parents again. It sounds interesting, and I am looking forward to it.

As you know, my dream is to become an actor like you, and to act with you. Do you have an email that you always use? Please tell me the email address so that we can talk about ourselves, or even about Harry Potter and the other actors in the movie, too, and I will keep you updated on the news in our school.

Thank you very much!

Sincerely,

Gogo

P.S. You will never stop inspiring my soul for the rest of my life.

I also couldn't have become the One Young World Human Rights Ambassador for Jerusalem I am today and couldn't have applied to the 2017 One Young World Youth Ambassador Conference without your inspiration Emma ;)

Life with Emm by Safayat AL
alsafayat@gmail.com

Fantasies should be unrealistic cause the moment we get what we desire, we want something else. It's been 17 years since my story with you and I really don't know how to describe it: as fantasy, obsession or curiosity? Never imagined to have life with you nor stalking around. As far i know that I surely will meet you someday.

This isn't craziness or insanity as a fan has over a celebrity but something beyond. We afraid of things we don't understand which are the reasons why I fear and excite the feeling of you. I love you for the part where you being yourself since the kid we saw in screen. Couldn't swap my eyes a bit only can feel my heart as it's too fresh like the beginning. I literally grew up with you, its like nothing uncommon and everything is just so familiar. Over the time the staking takes it places but somewhere u have been kept which is unknown even by me. When I look at you I smile as the likeable thing you are. You didn't change a bit rather carried that strong empowerment with significant confidence which reflected in your 'Hermion Granger' character. Women should be grow up like you, they should fight for their right, they needed a leader, a face, a voice of someone they can count and trust with their heart. You filled that gap in a magnificent way that even men tend to step forward for HeForShe campaign.

This is my 3rd letter to you. I love myself too much that i get used to with you this way. Yet I've preserved 11994 files of your memory. If you read this letter please remember my name cause I gonna meet you and will enjoy view of your endless beauty. Happy birthday to you. Live a wonderful, tremendous, & exciting life. Go beyond & live 1000 years.

I do not know why, but when I see you, I feel the man more 'happy in the world, perhaps it is because of your beauty, to your way of helping people, the skill in your work. And even if I know only in the virtual world, I love you and I wish with all my heart a happy birthday. HAPPY BIRTHDAY EMMA !!!! I really hope to hug you one day.

Dear Emma,

Every year this site gives us the opportunity to celebrate your birthday and leave a message for your birthday and it is a gift for me to be a part of this.

Emma I wish you a happy birthday, I wish you health, health, health, luck and that all your wishes come true. I hope you have a wonderful day with your family and your friends.

Your birthday is a time in the year for me, which is wonderful and hard because I want to say you Happy Birthday in a way, where you can see what you mean to me.

Every year I sit here and search after words, although my heart knows what to say.

You are a part of me and because of that a part of our family for so long that for us it is normality.

I know, that when I think about it I don't know you and you don't know me, but you are so important to me that I can't describe it.

I want you to know, that I am so proud of you. I believe that for you it is hard, there are so many people, who think they know you. But Emma I know that this is wrong, but we see you as our UN Women Goodwill Ambassador, as our Hermione, as our Sam, as our Pauline, as our princess Pea, as our Lucy, as our Nikki, as our Angela, as our Lena, as our Mae, as our Ila and now as our Belle and all of These characters are a part of you and it is unbelievable to can say that I know These parts and therewith a Little part of you, but never we will know you in the way that your Family knows you and this is good, because how I am a part of a incredible Family who know everything about me, you are a part of an incredible Family and this is one Thing that nobody can Change and about that I am happy, because all I want is that you are happy and I hope you are.

Emma you work as UN Women Goodwill Ambassador in a way that is unbelievable. You fight for the rights of Girls and women and you fight for equality with your heart and this is the most important, you make it with your heart and we can see this.

You are an role model for us. You said that Hermione and Belle are the perfect head and heart person, but Emma you want to know something you are a perfect "head and heart person" too. Your Belle is wonderful and you give her like you gave Hermione something from you, something from your believe, from your strength, from your heart and now there is another generation, who look up to you, but I can be lucky, becuase I can say I grow up with you and there is something more I want to say: Emma you change something, not only in us, in the world too and therefor all girls and women and because of that alle boys and men have to say thank you. I am a girl or now a young woman, who want to do everything to to do something for the children in our world and on behalf of these children I say thank you.

Thank you that you give us the chance to see you.

Every year I have so much to say, because I want to tell you so much.

I love you.

Yours Mara Alexandra
Germany

Happy 27th Birthday beautiful soul! I truly didn't really start watching you until Beauty and the Beast. I fell in love with your ability to act and portray so many didn't personalities! Your avid acts for feminism is amazing to say the least. I hope you spend your birthday with as many friends as possible.

With love,
A new fan ♥

She Couldn't be more beautiful than already is. A perfection & real beauty. An inspiration & dream of all beasts out there. A woman with marvel talents. This world needs few more personality like her. She should live 1000 years more. Happy Birthday Love !!!

Wish you many more happy birthday emma.very special day of my life.

Muthupandi, India

Emma, I hope your birthday is truly blessed and you experience true love and joy on your own personal holiday, the day of your birth. You have inspired me to be a better person, even when I disagree with. I am very thankful there is a woman such as yourself who grace's God's good earth. Thank you especially for the Noah movie from three years ago. It truly helped me in a time of great personal desperation.

I don't know how long winter is lasting for you in New York or England, wherever you may be, but I remembered a passage by CS Lewis from his poem, "The Planets", featured in in the essay "The Alliterative Metre," Lysistrata 2 (May 1935). I believed you might like to read. I suppose it was partly inspired by your expressing a fancy for Aslan in some interview I read recently.

In the third region
VENUS voyages...but my voice falters;
Rude rime-making wrongs her beauty,
Whose breasts and brow, and her breath's sweetness
Bewitch the worlds. Wide-spread the reign
Of her secret sceptre, in the sea's caverns,
In grass growing, and grain bursting,
Flower unfolding, and flesh longing,
And shower falling sharp in April.
The metal copper in the mine reddens
With muffled brightness, like muted gold,
By her fingers form'd. Far beyond her
The heaven's highway hums and trembles,
Drums and dindles, to the driv'n thunder
Of SOL's chariot, whose sword of light
Hurts and humbles; beheld only
Of eagle's eye...

It is JOVE's orbit,
Filled and festal, faster turning
With arc ampler. From the Isles of Tin
Tyrian traders, in trouble steering
Came with his cargoes; the Cornish treasure
That his ray ripens. Of wrath ended
And woes mended, of winter passed
And guilt forgiven, and good fortune
Jove is master; and of jocund revel,
Laughter of ladies. The lion-hearted,
The myriad-minded, men like the gods,
Helps and heroes, helms of nations
Just and gentle, are Jove's children,

Work his wonders. On his white forehead
Calm and kingly, no care darkens
Nor wrath wrinkles: but righteous power
And leisure and largess their loose splendours
Have wrapped around him – a rich mantle
Of ease and empire.

And also an excerpt from a favorite song of mine, April Rain by Delain

How does it feel when all you're counting on is scatterbrained
Every wind that you have sailed upon, a hurricane
Every summer you have seen was filled with April rain
It doesn't get easy, don't you know
Fortune smiles on you
You're not watching, dig that hole deeper
Fortune smiles on you
You're not watching, create your own fate
Count your blessings and prepare to change your point of view
All those days that you spend waiting won't come back to you
Take off the glasses that have treated your world black and grey
It doesn't get easy, don't you know

May angels sing a grand song for you on your birthday for you to dance jubilantly to, and may you watch your conscience's guidance. Happy Birthday, Emma

Happy Birthday Emma!

I hope you smile everyday. You make me Happy everyday.

I can't wait to see "Beauty and the Beast". We'll see it in April.

I wish you come to Japan again.

Love. Miki(Japan)

Dear Emma,

First of all, Happy Birthday! I am a huge fan of yours both on and off the screen. You inspire me every waking moment of my life (and sleeping,too). I especially love your role as Hermione. I have dressed up as her every year for Halloween as long as I can remember, and I am pretty sure I can recite the Harry Potter films from memory because I have watched them so much. Like both of you, I have a passion for school and feminism. I love to read and aspire to go to Brown as you did. I also strongly believe and recognize that women are still denied equal rights despite our large contributions in numerous fields. I honestly do not know what to say except I am so honored that you are actually reading this message. I wish you another successful year! I know you probably have a million other messages, and I hope this letter is not too generic and boring, but I am just a young woman in Menlo Park, California, trying to be noticed by and trying to reach out to her idol. I know it probably must be a little weird to have so many fans, but in a way, it is good because you realize how many people you work touches and inspires. Anyway, I hope you have an amazing 27th birthday filled with wishes and love. If possible, please reach out to me at camilleporteous@icloud.com

Happy Birthday!

I also would like to be an actress.

Once again I wish you happy birthday with the attached photo of me and a drawing I

Dear Emma!

Happy Birthday, Boss Lady!

You are out there on the forefront keeping up a very important issue, and I want to thank you a lot for that! You made me realise I'm a feminist, you made me aware that I can be an activist.

You helped us discover the Philosopher's Stone, and went with us down into the dangerous Chamber of Secrets, where we discovered the Prisoner of Azkaban after we rose again. He helped us in fighting a dragon, and we even came back from the graveyard in Little Hangleton, shocked, but as a victor. You also helped us through our heart sickness this whole week with Marilyn and the Halfblood Prince. You showed us what true friendship is in the search for the Deathly Hallows, as well as to support a wallflower, because you see things, and you understand. The character of Ila struck a cord with me and made me cry while watching a movie the first time. I never wanted to train for the ballet, but your character of Pauline made me appreciate the advantages of ballet. Then again, you showed us once again a very strong female character, and it felt so surreal when I saw you in that Dirndl in Colonia Dignidad. "When they took her man, she swore to bring him back". You showed us a very noble trait in women, and I LOVE the movie for that message. You also showed us a not so admirable character with Nikki, but that is important too, because the message of that movie is so important. You also have lured us to believe your character Angela, and now I understand why you said that this character helped you so much in developing your skills as an actor. You were not desperate when you chose the movie Desperaux, but I believe I'll be desperate after watching The Circle. You stunned as Beauty and I know one thing for sure: This is NOT the End.

Thanks for all that you do, your activism amazes me, and you really are a feminist, no matter what others may tell you.

Happy Birthday, Boss Lady!

Meerder

Well... I never know what should I say..
The truth is that I just want you to be happy. With whom and wherever you are.
Hope, that right now, you're having THAT really good time in your life, that someday, in old age, you'll be able to mention with a beautiful smile on your face. I guess what the pressure it could be when you're an inspiration for so many people who are watching your every move but... fuck that! Carpe diem, your happiness is the most important. Oh no... It was supposed to be short..
Anyway, I send you a lot of kisses and positive energy.

... you go girl!

Aga x [Poland, 19, @bonjour-lou]

First of all, Happy Birthday Emma! I hope you have a really nice day and enjoy it with all the people you love, you deserve the best in everything you do, so just be happy, today and everyday.

I have to tell you what I think about you, Emma you are the only perfect person in Earth, you truly are. I've always thought that everyone should be like you and the world would change completely, you have everything that everyone should have, you are extremely beautiful and intelligent, and I know that you won't accept it, which is part of being who you are, being perfect.

Everything I've seen you do is one more reason to admire you, I love the way you put everything of yourself to do something, because I know that your purpose is always to do it the best possible way.

Everytime that you do something, you show that you are prepared, that you are intelligent, beautiful and you put everything of you to make it the best, and that is why you are the BEST.

I love every single aspect about you, there is nothing that one smile from you can't fix, nothing makes me happier than seeing you smiling, you are my happiness, my strength, my inspiration, my life, my desire to be better, to someday be a little bit like you, you are everything, you can't imagine how much you mean to me.

Being your fan is the biggest gift that I could have, that life could give me. I love you so much.

I really hope that you have the best day you can because there's no one in this world who deserves it more than you. Happy Birthday Emma, I will always thank life for putting you in mine, it is the best that could ever happen to me.

I love you, I genuinely do and I always will.

Lore Mañón.

Hi Emma, my name is Jorja and I am 11. I am your biggest fan ever and I wanted to wish you a happy birthday. It is my dream to talk to you and act like you in movies. Beauty and the Beast is my favorite movie ever too. I think you are beautiful and happy birthday!

Happy Birthday Emma!!

Thank you for being such a great role model and you always manage to make me laugh. I cannot explain how much you mean to me and I hope your birthday is a good one.

Emily Hix, US

Dear Emma, I wish you a wonderful birthday and a year full of magical moments and fulfilled wishes.

Love, Rahel (11 years)

Birthdays are a new start; fresh beginnings, a time to start new endeavors with new goals. Move forward with fresh confidence and courage. You are a special person, may you have an amazing today and year!

Count the age, not the wrinkles you have. Count the blessings and the wonderful experience not the mistakes you have made.

Forget the past, look forward to the future for the best things are yet to come.

Happy Birthday to a person that is charming, talented and witty and reminds me a lot of myself.

A birthday is the most special day in one's life. Enjoy it to the fullest.

My Birthday wish for you is that you continue to love life and never stop dreaming. May beauty and happiness surround you not only on your special day, but always.

The advantage of old age is that you get many people to love.

Words alone are not enough to express how happy I am you are celebrating another year of your life! My wish for you on your birthday is you are and will always be happy and healthy! Don't every change.

Have a wonderful happy, healthy birthday and many more to come. Happy Birthday!

Marcos

Emma, I wish you a great and happy Birthday and hope and pray all your wishes come true. May God and the Lord Jesus always protect you and be with you.

Love and kiss always,

Many people would say Happy Birthday to you, and tell you how perfect you are. I agree with these statements, and the perfect words will never be found to describe how much you are loved and valued to everyone. I appreciate that you have always stayed truthful to yourself and this world, and I hope you will always continue doing this. And of course, Happy Birthday to someone that will forever inspire us to be the best we can be.

Emma-Happy 27th birthday!

You inspire me so much. Partly because you played Hermione, and I'm quite obsessed with Harry Potter, so you make it come to life for me. Secondly, you speak out for what you believe in, and that takes a lot because you're bound to get criticized for your every move. I'm eleven, and want to become an actress, and you show me that I can do that and more. Thanks for being that person, and a happy birthday to you.

Happy 27th Birthday Emma!

Wow, 27 years old! I can't believe that you are 3 years away from turning 30 (Of course I still can't believe that I actually AM 30)! Time passes far too quickly. To think that it was ten years ago when you had just confirmed you were signed on for the rest of the Harry Potter films a couple of months prior to your 17th birthday. In fact your original official site wasn't even launched until the summer of 2007, meaning that 10 years ago on your birthday you didn't have any sites or social media accounts, so the only way fans could interact with you were fan letters and birthday/christmas projects. Within ten years you've already accomplished so much, acting career and beyond, and not only have social media accounts, but also a book club forum dedicated to feminism and gender equality (though sadly the official site is gone). It's been an amazing ride and it will only continue to get better from here. I hope your birthday this year is the best one yet.

Happy Birthday Emma

Happy Birthday Emma!

I just can't believe you are now 27. I've been watching & following you for about 17 years and I'm happy to see how far you've come. Based on everything you've done and achieved till now, no doubt we can still expect great things from you. Go Emma! I'm proud of you. From the beginning I saw your potential and I really noticed that I was not wrong about you. Come on Emma, go ahead! There is still a lot to do.. but you're doing great! For now, forget about duties and enjoy this day!! You deserve it.

Best wishes from Mexico to you.

Happy Birthday Emma!

Here is a Triolet Poem I have written just for you.

Emma
Sweet eyes of sultry Autumn glow
Mesmerising as the stars
Filled with tears, for those who weep
Sweet eyes of sultry Autumn glow
She smiles a smile that says 'I know'
And I will lead so they may grow
Sweet eyes of sultry Autumn glow
Mesmerising as the stars

I do hope you like it. Keep up the wonderful work for women everywhere.

Love from Britt x
