Happy Birthday

Emma, I love you and I adore you. I once have started being attracted by you at the time when 'Beauty and the Beast' trailer came out. At that moment, I am wondering who is that beautiful girl who plays Belle. After that, I was determined to go to a cinema and watch 'Beauty and the Beast'. After I have watched the movie, I become totally in love with you. I started to watch your movies, your interviews, your speeches, everything about you. You are definitely smart, sweet and kind-hearted, which from the ways you express the importance of feminism and Times' up movement. Not only these but also how the way you asked people to dream big, you have said before, "Just don't let anyone tell you what you can and can't do or achieve" This sentence means a lot to me. I hope I can do exactly what this sentence means to you and to me. Although I may not be able to see or visit you in my life, I always would be that little potato who supports you. Emma, happy birthday and hope you have a marvellous one.

Dear Emma,

I want to wish you a big Happy Birthday! I admire all your work, both as actress and as feminist: you really are an amazing role model for every girls and women all around the world. Keep doing what you're doing! I hope to see you again as soon as possible in a movie, but for the moment... Happy Birthday from Italy!!!

Simona

Congratulations Emma! You are a great actress and I am proud of you. I wish I could get to know you one day. Have a great day! I send you my prayers to give thanks to God for the gift of your life and so that you continue spreading good all over the world. I also send you a birthday hug.

Leslie

Happy birthday, Emma! I don't want to sound banal but I wish you all your dreams come true. I hope you have a magical day and you are happy. Remember that you are a really powerful person who can change the world, people & make them happy (so please be back to public if it's possible because you're one of those reasons that make me smile). You've been my role model & obsession since I was 10 years old. I still want to meet the one who changed my life, even though now I feel like I'm not that big fan of yours as I was before. But I'd rather like to be seen in your eyes as a person of the same or similar social rank than as one of the crazy fans. By that I meant that meeting with you is one of the most important reasons I want to become an actress. Maybe I feel like I'm not your best fan (as I used to call myself) anymore just because you're publicly inactive, but I think I'll always support you & want to meet you because I have some questions to ask you. But, at the same time, I'm afraid of meeting you perhaps because I feel like I'll do something wrong. As you said once, "It's scary to meet people you admire. Will you disappoint? Will they?" I know that sometimes your life can be difficult but don't forget that you have us. I hope this message at least made you smile. Happy birthday! Sincerely yours, Sasha, 13 y.o.

Happy Birthday, Emma! It's my first time sending you a birthday message via Emma Watson Net, and since they are the only fanpage you follow, I hope you will see this & it will make you smile 💎 Sincerely yours, Sasha, 13 y.o. from Ukraine, currently in New York.

YOU CAN BE WHATEVER YOU WANT TO BE

"There is inside you,
All of the potential,
To be whatever you want to be,
All of the energy,
To do whatever you want to do,
Imagine yourself,
As you would like to be,
Doing what you want to do,
And each day, take one step,
Towards your dream,
And though at times,
It may seem too difficult to continue,
Hold on to your dream,
One morning,
You will awake to find,
You are the person you dreamed of,
Doing what you wanted to do, Simply because you had the courage,
To believe in your potential,
And to hold on to your dream."

Dare to think different,
It's the best way to succeed, Dare to dream big,
Fuel your fire to achieve.

There's only one of you,
Be as unique as you are,
Take your own journey,
Step by step you'll go far.

Happy Birthday...

Happy 28th Birthday Emma!

It was ten years ago that you turned 18 and posted a video message on your official site to celebrate (the first of the birthday/Christmas messages you posted on your site), yet it feels like it was only yesterday. Now you are 28 years old, two years away from being 30(an age I have already passed). Time has flown by so fast, yet so much has happened between then and now that even your 18 year old self, who had already experienced the extraordinary during the Potter years, would believe you if you went back in time and told her some of those events, both good and bad. Hopefully both of our countries (and the world) can make it through the latter events.

Anyway I wish you the best birthday yet and I hope we hear from you more often in the future.

Love,

Kevin, USA

Dear Emma,

Firstly. I want to say Happy Birthday to your twenty-eighth birthday.
Don't know where to start.. Uh, well, I want to share my own story with you.
I am just a common senior 2 school student, living in a trivial city. But I still have a dream, maybe this sounds hilarious, that I want to meet with you and be a friend with you. I know this is almost impossible to achieve. But I believe in miracles absolutely, and I will spare no effort to chase it. Just like you said "I don't want the fear of failure to stop me from doing what I really care about."
It has already been 3 years since I first "meet" you.

Once I saw you in the "HP", I instantly fell in love with the kind, beautiful and hard-working girl called Hermione. Then, I got to know much about you via network. I got to know you stick to studying while shooting the "Hp", and you were admitted as a Brown University student. And you championed the feminist movement, giving speeches in the UN..... You are already living the way you want to be.
All of this affects me continuously. Last year was the hardest year in my studying.
Without you, I would have been defeated.
In my mind. you have become a belief of me. So, here, I sincerely say "thank you" to you.

Thank you again.

Yours, 司傲寒 (Si Ao Han), China

HAPPY 28TH BIRTHDAY, EMMA WATSON!

Happy Birthday!!!!!!! I would like to tell you that you are an excellent actress. And that I have changed so much. But I still admire you as a human being. I'm in your reading group: Our shared shelf. You inspire me thanks to your ecological fashion. And your love for reading inspires me. One of my favorite books is the diary of Anne Frank. I know you have many fans around the world. And I hope you feel on your birthday all the love of your fans. I wish you the best day. I wish you have fun. And I sent you kisses and hugs. Thanks for inspiring me.

With love, Maricela Cruz.

I hope you have a wonderful day and are together with your loved ones.

I really admire you for all the things you do in the world and the Person that you are. I wished that all your hard work in the world (metoo/heforshe u.s.w) and film industry would be more honoured and be acknowledged. Hope to hear or see you soon in shows,events or in the cinema if there is a movie planned.

I hope you could understand what i wrote and are happy about it.

Well, I think a true gift to anyone is to know what their heart desires and giving that to them but nonetheless even if someone shares your emotions is a great relief. Isn't it. So, on that note I just wanna dedicate one of my favourite songs to her and that is "Pani Da Rang" (song name). It's a bollywood song from movie "Vicky Donor". Please listen it particularly the male version of it. It's a very emotional song.

Dear Beautiful Girl Wishing You A Day Which Is As Special As You Are*

Susang Bhatt, India

May this day come again and again
May my heart sing this again and again
May you live a thousand years
This is indeed my wish
Happy Birthday to you
Happy Birthday to you
Happy Birthday to
Happy Birthday to you
(Am) not in my senses right now Who can I fall back on for support Who is there who is your equal Who can I indeed name
No, no, there really is none Nobody as beautiful (as you)
On whom one's glance just stays Who is considered without equal
May you live a thousand years
This is indeed my wish
Happy Birthday to you
Like others here I could've also brought you a gift today
In this beautiful assembly, I could've also brought you flowers But my heart said, what need does she have Of flowers
When she herself symbolizes Spring And makes every bud's heart beat
May you live a thousand years
This is indeed my wish
Happy Birthday to you
The flowers from the gardens send you these greetings
The stars from the sky send you this message They pray that the Lord may bestow on you The years that the moon has Even if it means the day of resurrection arrives first
May you live a thousand years
This is indeed my wish
Happy Birthday to you
May this day come again and again
May my heart sing this again and again
May you live a thousand years
This is indeed my wish
Happy Birthday to you
Happy Birthday to you
Happy Birthday to you

Dear Emma,

My name is Mara Alexandra and I write you this letter, because today is your birthday and because of Emma-Watson. Now we got the opportunity to celebrate it and wish you a happy birthday.

Happy Birthday Emma from all my heart. I wish you health for you and your family because I think it's the most important in life. I wish you luck and love and that all your wishes come true.

Every year I sit here and it is very hard for me to find the right words because I don't know how to describe how much you mean to me. I know you may think that I don't know you and a lot of people don't understand very well why you are so important to me. And my wish is that you can understand that. So today I want to tell you the story about the fact what you mean to me. It all started with Harry Potter and I saw you as Hermione. Hermione inspired me, she taught me what a girl can do, how much strength you have inside yourself. You taught me a lot about friendship in this time. My family mean everything to me and they understand and respect me for who I am, but with friends for me it was always a kind of difficult. Sometimes I felt like Hermione in school. I learnt a lot, tried to make all my homework right and get good marks. Schoolwork was hard for me but I fight for good results in exams. Furthermore I had my opinions to a lot of things or situations and my mom told me maybe I thought too much and maybe I thought about more things or different things than the others. And she was right. I feel like my head is always working and my priorities are often different or in a different order as by other people in my age. So I felt in school always a little bit misunderstood and maybe Hermione felt that too, until their friends saw her for who she was. Over the years I saw you grew up, but I saw at the beginning Hermione grew up not you and she told me about love, about friendship, about trust and about protect the people you love, about fighting for fairness, about to be brave and so on and she became my idol. But something changed over the time. When I get a little bit older I questioned myself who is behind Hermione and then I found this website here and I wanted to know everything about you because you were so a big part of my childhood so a big part of me. Through Harry Potter the films and the books I learnt to dream, to escape into another world and I learn to fight for my priorities, to fight for what is important in life. So I watched Harry Potter and I visit regular this site and it was such wonderful because I felt like I was a part of it and this makes me happy. Now it was you who taught me so much and Hermione was and is always a big part of that because through her I got to know you. I grew up and I always wondered what is if something changed about it will there always be another one, who inspired me so much like you? I was afraid that it will be so, because I didn't want to loose you. A lot of people don't understand that , they say how can you love her so much, you don't know anything about her and maybe it is true but Emma you are a part of me since I was little and you were there always. Since then I watch your films, I look forward for pictures and interviews, but at the same time I hope that you are happy and when there wasn't any picture it wasn't bad because I know I am not a part of your life and wished that you are happy and healthy and that you have your family and all what you wish for life. For me you were always more than an actor you were Emma and you inspired me by what you do with projects, by what you say, by your opinions,... When you became UN Women Goodwill Ambassador it should be like to get to know a different side of you but it wasn't, it was like it was always a part of you and now you be it at a different level. I see you as an actor, but also I see you as a human and as a feminist and especially the last part shows how wonderful you are and that you fight for what you believe and that you give women and girls and children and so many more a voice that you make a difference in the world. And this shows who you are what your are fighting for, what the priorities in your life are and I also think that you would do it, without playing Hermione all this years ago, but on a different level and I know it must be hard often for you to live in the spotlight but Emma you changed so many lives, including mine that I hope for you that it was worth it for you, because Emma you give people a voice, you show and taught people so many things, you were and will always be Emma. The roles you play taught us so much too and that you played Belle was like a dream comes true, but most importantly you were always you and you remain true to yourself.

And so Emma nothing changed I saw a lot of movies and the actors and actresses inspired me and they do inspire me, but nobody is like you, nobody besides my family and they are my life, my heart and everything for me in life and I wish they will always be healthy and happy and that nothing bad happens to them.

But there is one person, who became such an idol for me as you and it is Bethany Hamilton and there are so many differences between you two, but both of you show me much about family, about life, about love, about fighting for someone or something, about be brave and kind and about be me,... I love you both, but Emma you were there much longer, because I didn't know Beth at the time I got to know you. You both mean so much to me, but you were and will always be my Emma. When I was afraid when I was younger than it was like you take my hand and show me that I can do it. Or when I need someone to talk you are always there.

I can't describe the feeling or I can't explain but the one thing I can do, I can say thank you, thank you for being such a wonderful woman, thank you for being there.

Emma sometimes it felt like I talk to you in person and a lot of people asked me what I would do if I meet you. And I don't know and I really don't know because I would be so afraid, that I would disappoint you or do something embarrassing or can't show you how much you mean to me.

In this year I couldn't make a video, but Emma I want you to know that I think of you on your birthday and so do my family because they know how important you are to me.

I wish you a Happy Birthday because you deserve it Emma, because you are incredible. Happy Birthday.

With love,
Mara Alexandra, Germany

Happy 28th birthday, Emma. I wish you a high-level career, success and happiness in your life. Let your dreams come true. Thank you for the motivation given, your charming smile, the good impressions. Continue to fight for feminism and seek equal rights because it is very important for everyone. You are the greatest person in my life. I hope my dream of meeting you will come true one day.

I love you! ❤️

Happy Birthday
Emma

Dear Emma,

happy birthday from the bottom of my heart, thank you for inspire me to be a better person, I made this for you. I hope you like it.

Thank you, Emma

A poem to wish my favorite celebrity a very happy birthday!

*Thank you, Emma,
for your dedication and integrity, in representing the next wave of feminism.*

*Thank you, Emma,
for leading by example.
Your work in UN Women, in HeForShe, and in advocating the #MeToo movement, has opened my eyes to a variety of different ideas.*

*Thank you, Emma, for your uplifting UN speech from nearly four years ago.
It changed who I am forever, as I found myself in a way I never knew conceivable.*

*Thank you, Emma,
for establishing an online book club, and for hiding books on the subway, to be discovered by anyone.*

*Thank you for interviewing the selected authors in your club, too.
I have learned from them as I have you!*

*Perhaps above all, thank you for just being you, and for inspiring others such as myself.
I hope you continue to do so, for it means a lot to me.*

Have a phenomenal birthday!

Sincerely,
Jayce

Congratulations for your 28th birthday, Emma. Have a really nice and wonderful day :)

Year after year I've been watching you growing up and becoming the lovely & beautiful lady you are now. Your external work reveals what you have inside and I clearly see you still have so much to offer to the world so, please, don't stop doing it. We can expect great and many interesting things from you. Just continue walking thru the way of stability and balance and the rest will come by itself.

Take care Emma. I know you will amaze us again with something truly outstanding in the near future; I can't wait to see what it is.

Wishing you always the best,
Luis, México
