Emma dear, I wish you a Happy Holiday, health and love!! It's been great all these years, as you grew up to become a beautiful, intelligent young woman and an inspiration to all of your fans! I congratulate you for your graduation, it means so much that you give importance to women's education. I also congratulate you for your inspiring speech at the U.N., I really admire you for your attitude towards important and sensitive issues.
Can't wait to see what you have next for as, I am sure it will be amazing.
Merry Christmas to our lovely Emma!

Hello,Emma.

How are you doing?? I'm fine.

I'm a japanese girl and 14. So maybe i'll make mistakes with my English but please keep reading. I hope you will read this letter ALL :)

I became your fan in 2009 because of Harry Potter. At that time, I didn't have anything i love so i was so excited when i knew about you! I'm really proud of you because you are an unaffected person. I like it.

This time, i'd like to talk about my future. Actually i want to go to university of UK or USA. So i'm studying english so hard. Then why i wanna go abroad? There is a reason. That's YOU. Since I knew about you, I've noticed what to do for my future. I'd like to be worker of international relations or scientist. Plus i want to spread charity in japan. Because i'm not sure but charity is not fair in japan. I think because the culture of difference. But i think we all people can help somebody. Of course i can so i wanna be like you. Your speech of "He for She" was amazing! i moved it even in 14.

Anyway, I want to be like that and i'll see you in my future and i'll say thank you to you with face to face.

I hope you enjoy your christmas and 2015! I love you:)

Happy Christmas.

GOOD LUCK!

"To be, or not to be, that is the question:
Whether 'tis nobler in the mind to suffer
The slings and arrows of outrageous fortune,
Or to take arms against a sea of troubles,
And by opposing end them? To die, to sleep,
No more; and by a sleep to say we end" - William Shakespeare

The World is changing. However it turns out that, increasingly, the ability to us to be more educated people, and more knowledgeable of the problems around us, makes us able to discuss and create our own ideas.

And this change is positive, very constructive. Although we are far from achieving goals such as equality and peace (know that phrase: "make love, not war"), have been much further.

I really enjoyed your speech at the UN, and in fact I think important to increasingly require to governments and citizens equality.

It's the time to not sleep again, but yes to fight for what we believe and not be afraid. Fear arises from ignorance. And with the fear comes anger, inequality, and war. But we are not ignorant. So why does this happen? Why do women around the world continue to receive less pay than men, or because men continue to beat their wives? It is ignorance? I think not. On the contrary, it is because they know what their weaknesses and continue consecutively to use them to their advantage.

So how do you fight this? How do you fight a rooted culture in people's minds, old or new, ignorant or not, men or women?

The answer is with intelligence, above all others.

The smart fight must be constant, persistent, do not stop. And you have to know how to play the weaknesses of those who still allows the sexist attitudes today.

As a Portuguese proverb: Soft water in hard rock, both hits until it sticks.

Insists, resists and do not give up. And in the process, be more and more happy. Happiness is the energy that moves the bold.

I wish you a Merry Christmas, a Great New Year, and fight with all your strength.

Guilherme Dias

Merry Christmas!

"Christ came at just the right time, and died for us sinners. Now, most people would not be willing to die for an upright person, though someone might perhaps be willing to die for a person who is especially good. But God showed his great love for us by sending Christ to die for us while we were still sinners."

Romans 5:6-8 (NLT)

If you really think about it,
the sacrifice that Christians believe Christ came to make for them was really the ultimate

HeForShe

moment in all of history!

Happy Christmas, Emma.

David, USA

This Christmas I wish you to enjoy the company of your loved ones and joy of Christmas, and you find this holiday season, happiness in the happiness of others, I think this is the best way to find oneself and even more christmas time.

Significant changes have occurred throughout history, with the influence of the voices of many characters, yours has been significant for as important as gender equity issue. Maybe I do not have the means but I like many, a young man prepares his profile in order to contribute to social development and I wish every day with empathy fight hunger, poverty, gender inequality and I congratulate you add your efforts.

Well, and also to smile at Christmas is the best adornment and as your smile is magic, I wish, give you thousand reasons to smile ... I wish that all your goals are met, and remember:

The things around us are just that, things, what makes us unique is what differentiates us from others and the essence of our heart shows us the true, pure and sincere wishes.

With love from Ecuador,

Steven Andrés C. Macías

Dear Emma!

You always work as hard as you can as an actress.
You are 24 years old and have made 19 films so far, including preproduction, filming and postproduction.

You graduated in May and you are UN Women Goodwill Ambassador.
You are a model, working with Lancome a few years ago. I really like this commercial.

You are a very friendly, polite, and funny person. You always laugh all the time.

I hope this will not change. You are so unique, go your own way and do not change because of somebody, which you might regret one day.

Have fun at Christmas and I hope you can enjoy it.
Relax, spend time with your dear one's and just feel infinite.

We are infinite

You may see me struggle
but you won't see me fall.
Regardless if I'm weak or not
I'm going to stand tall.
Everyone says life is easy
but truly living it is not.
Times get hard,
people struggle
and constantly get put on the spot.
I'm going to wear the biggest smile
even though I want to cry.
I'm going to fight to live
even though I'm destined to die.
And even though it's hard
and I may struggle through it all.
You may see me struggle...
but you will NEVER see me fall.

We will never see YOU fall.
And even if, true fans go through hell if necessary.
And come back to earth.

Christmas Go

yourself

The snow blows white on the mountains this times
Lot's of kids footprint to be seen
In United Kingdom you are the Queen
The wind is howling
Winter is coming
Couldn't keep the happiness in Heaven knows I try

Let others see
Be the good girl you've always been
Don't conceal, and just feel, let them know
Well, they know

Christmas come, Christmas go
Another year has passed
Christmas come, Christmas go
One more time I'm writing you back
And here I stand
And here I'll stay
Christmas come, Christmas go
Happy Christmas anyway

It's funny how some distance
Make no difference
So I can wish you a happy Christmas!

Fight for your dreams

Dearest Emma....

How are you there? It's been 6 years I have become a fan of yours. I still remember the first time I saw you on TV. It was on December 2008. The whole family and I were watching Harry Potter and the sorcerer's stone. Yes.. I know it was late remembering that the first sequel of Harry Potter released in 2002. But.. I am grateful to be able to know and enjoy the posh fantasy world that created by J.K. Rowling. In the beginning I disliked your character and said "She is so talkative and annoying, isn't she?" .

But , I end up loving Hermione because she isn't just an annoying " nonsense" talkative one but also the loyal friend and a brilliant girl at the same time.

The next day , I searched about her on the internet and found out your name, Emma Watson.. the actress that played role. Well , you are her in real life. You got 8 straight As and 2 As. I was amazed by that fact and suddenly became your fan. I truly.. truly believe that my point of view about you isn't wrong. You are a smart, kind-hearted and brave woman to stand up for the right things. You admitted it that you aren't perfect and don't want to be. It takes courage to admitted it considering many famous people do the opposite. They try to be as perfect as they can to be praised but not you. You are who you are and not fake. I think that what makes us proud to be your fans.

You inspired me a lot by your personality and your UN speech as the form of action in the sake of standing up for what you think is right.

We love you and don't ever change! Keep being yourself!. Okay Emma..I've told you things that stuck in my mind and heart. Happy holidays Emma!May joy and laughter tag on your holidays . Be with family that will make you feel warm and delighted. You are the word of intelligence,beauty and class. GOD bless you Emma!

Lots of love & care,

Henny Halim from Indonesia

Dear Emma,
Merry Christmas and Happy New Year! I hope you have a wonderful holiday season. Thank you for being such an amazing role model. Your speech at the UN was so touching and inspirational. Merry Christmas, Emma!!! And with we come close to the end of 2014, a year in which you finally graduated from Brown and became the Goodwill Ambassador for UN Women. :). You should feel very proud of your accomplishments, as you've worked very hard to achieve them. Once again your UN speech was beautiful and to speak in front of the UN to the entire world was very brave. Hopefully someday in the future the issues we face now will be a distant memory. But until then keep fighting the good fight Emma. #HeForShe.

I hope you have a great holiday with your family and friends and that 2015 is an even better year. Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.
